INCORPORATION PLAN COVERS LARGE AREA

NEW CITY?—Here is a map of the proposed incorporation of Woodside covering approximately 12 square miles and including 3000 persons. The boundary line extends east to the Alameda de las Pulgas in Redwood City, then follows along Woodside road to a point just west of the proposed new high school site of the Sequoia High School district; then borders on the Mezes ranch north to Sandhill road and west to include the Woodside country club to Skyline boulevard to Kings Mountain road and then east across Canada road and borders on the Stulsaft park in Redwood City.

Start Next Week:

Woodside Incorporation Petitions Ready to Go

Petitions for the proposed incorporation of Woodside will probably be ready for circulation next week, Mrs. Edward Russell, spokesman for the group proposing incorporation, announced yesterday.

All Woodside property owners are being asked to come to the Bulletin Board located in the old feed store in Woodside where they can sign the petitions next week.

The Bulletin Board will be open day and night and the incorporation backers hope to have the necessary 25 per cent signed up within another week so that the petitions can be presented to the county board of supervisors.

"Then the supervisors will set the election date, hopefully by the end of May and definitely before school is out and many persons have left on vacation," Mrs. Russell said.

The backers of incorporation are an unofficial group with no chairman or official organization, Mrs. Russell disclosed. She cites as the basic reasons for forming a municipality the desire of many residents to prevent strip and creeping annexation of Woodside areas by Menlo Park, Redwood City and Atherton and to preserve Woodside for country living. Another reason listed is to allow Woodsiders to have "self control over their own dwellings."

"We plan to get at least 35 per cent of those persons representing the assessed land valuation in Woodside to sign the petitions to allow for any errors, although only 25 percent is required," Mrs. Russell said. If the property is in joint tenancy, both owners must sign, she added.

In discussing the election last July when a narrow percentage of the 300 persons voting turned down an incorporation plan, Mrs. Russell deplored the fact that the election was held in the summer when so many residents were away on vacation.

The county boundary commission has already approved the boundary lines of the proposed incorporated area which includes approximately 12 square miles and includes 3000 persons. Before the election is set, the county supervisors will hold a public hearing and may exclude certain property from the boundaries upon protest from the owners.

Drivers Escape Serious Injury In Car Crashes

Two drivers had narrow escapes in separate accidents in Atherton Tuesday night and early yesterday morning.

Atherton police report that Glenn D. Holmberd, 42, of Los Altos, was proceeding west on Atherton avenue when he said oncoming lights temporarily blinded him as he neared Stevenson lane. He said he swerved to avoid a collision and his car ended up striking a large oak tree in front of 82 Atherton avenue. Then the car verved into a driveway at 92 Atherton avenue.

Police booked Holmberd at the county jail in Redwood City on charges of being drunk in the city limits and driving with an expired operator's license. He posted $50 cash bail.

Two 'teen agers were slightly injured in another crash which ended with their car overturning in the creek west of Middlefield road at Marsh road at 3:45 a.m. Wednesday, police report.

According to the report, George E. M[illegible], 18, of 1055 Pine street, said he was turning from Marsh into Middlefield road when ashes from a lighted cigaret fell on the dress[illegible] the passenger next to him. He reached over to flick them off and then lost control of his car.

Slightly injured were the passengers: Ellen Doyle, 17, and Carl Rountree, 17, both of Palo Alto. They were taken to the Palo Alto hospital for treatment of lacerations and then dismissed.

IN CASE OF FIRE CALL DA 3-2404

Belangie Eyes Race for Assembly, Backs Dolwig for State Senate Seat

Precincts Set:

School Board Adopts Election Plan — But Candidates Lacking

Menlo Park School District trustees Monday formally okayed boundaries of precincts for the May 18 combined Menlo Park-Sequoia high school District school election, but no indication was given as to whether or not incumbents on the elementary district board will make a contest locally or not.

Incumbents Mrs. Mary Klein and John C. Davenport said Monday that they considered any statement as to whether or not the yintended to file o succeed themselves as "premature at this time." Both are completing first terms on the board.

In the Sequoia district, a contest has already developed, with Mrs. Patricia Atkinson of Woodside and Mrs. Helen Kerwin of Atherton already filing as candidates. Incumbent Robert Dell'Ergo of Menlo Park has already stated that he does not intend to be a candidate.

The May 18 school election wil actually see three ballots presented to the voters. Besides the elementary and Sequoia district ballots, there will be a balloting for members of the San Mateo county school board.

Polling places in the district will be at Encinal, Central, Fremont and Hillview schools.

These polling places are the same as in previous years, it was pointed out, but boundaries of the consolidated areas have been changed.

Monday night, the Menlo Park School District board also:

1. Okayed a reply to a letter from the Encinal school PTA, in which the latter called for returfing, in the near future, of playgrounds. The board of trustees reviewed their timetable for the turfing job, which is to get under way within the next few months.

2. Discussed a clarification of wording of the district's salary schedule which would make it more clear that teachers would receive only half credit for previous teaching experience, until they have achieved tenure with the district.

3. Okayed a transfer of funds from the county, to cover district expenses until tax monies are received.

Jaycees Call Local Talent For Show Here

Member of the Menlo-Atherton Junior Chamber of Commerce were this week combing the community, for talent to fill the cast of their musical, "Holiday Ahoy," which is to be presented at Burgess park Little Theater March 1, 2, 3.

The gay musical comedy, with a cast of 100, will be used as a fundraiser to finance Jaycee projects throughout the year, President Burt Blackwell said this week, in calling on all those with theatrical inclinations to make themselves known.

He added that Norman Bourke has been named chairman in charge of the show.

The colorful musical comedy requires the services of a complete staff of musicians, and there are spots for 30 high school girls, a number of younger children, and for specialists such as clowns, vocalists, and dancers.

Costumes are available for all those joining the cast.

The show, which has 10 scenes, will concern the launching of the "SS Holiday"; the scenes also have been made available.

Bourke, meanwhile, announces that Mrs. Lee Wainwright has been named director of the production.

He added that, owing to the shortness of time before the presentation dates, rehearsals must be started promptly and urged all those planning to join the cast to do so as soon as possible.

Those wishing to try out for places in the cast should call Mrs. Wainwright at DA 5-8780 or Bourke, DA 4-1127.

Official Moves Set Election, Bond Measures

Menlo Park's municipal election was formally set for April 10, and another legal action officially put bond issues for a library and for playgrounds on the ballot, at the Menlo Park city council's meeting Tuesday night.

The council also set up 12 consolidated precincts, and listed polling places and election officials, as it ground through the technical details which must precede the actual ballot casting.

Councilman Vail Andrus introduced the ordinance putting the bonds measures—$120,000 for a library and $100,000 for park acquisition and development—on the ballot.

The measure was accompanied by a "resolution of necessity" which was also an essential part of the preliminaries.

The polling places will be numbered A to L and will be made up of consolidated general election precincts.

New Areas Ask To Join City In Petitions

The isthmus of unincorporated area which has cut into Menlo Park's northwest corner will soon be diminished somewhat. The city council Tuesday night introduced a "resolution to annex" three of the holdings in the area of Lemon avenue, Santa Cruz avenue and Olive street, at the request of the owners.

Owners requesting inclusion in the city, Raymond Betka, 1781 Santa Cruz avenue, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Abbey of 1032 Lemon avenue and Dr. Harry L. Ryberg, whose property also faces Santa Cruz avenue.

Receiving the petitions and calling for the resolution, Mayor George Ford said it was "extremely gratifying" to see persons voluntarily join the city, to participate in its problems and its work of maintaining public services.

Two Candidates File in School District Races

Only two candidates have filed for elementary school district trustee positions in the areas surrounding the Menlo Park elementary school district according to the county superintendent of school's office in Redwood City.

These are: Clair Silliman, Redwood City businessman and incumbent trustee in the Redwood City elementary school district which includes the Selby Lane school in Atherton and Joseph Violette, incumbent trustee in the Ravenswood district.

Silliman's is the only position open for election in the Redwood City district. No one else has filed although the closing date for filing is not until April 18 with the election set for May 18.

Violette has been a Ravenswood trustee for two years. He is 34 and an industrial engineer at Stanford Research Institute. He lives at 318 Oakwood place with his wife and two daughters. They have been residents of the Ravenswood district for six years.

Ravenswood district trustee chairman Fielding McDearmon has announced that he will not seek re-election.

Silliman, 45, is owner of the Redwood City Cold Storage company in Redwood City and resides with his wife and four children at 165 Hardwick road, Redwood City.

The two incumbent trustees in the Las Lomitas school district have both stated they would not be candidates again. They are Mrs. Ruth Duniway and Jack Robertson. Mrs. Duniway, a resident of 333 Fletcher drive, Atherton, reports she will not run again because "my youngest child graduates from Las Lomitas in June and I feel that a parent of children in the school should be on the board."

Robertson cites the press of personal business as his reason for not seeking another term. He has served four years on the board.

Incumbent John J. Reese in the Greersburg elementary school district reports that he is still undecided whether to seek re-election.

In the Portola school district, Josiah Lancaster said he would not reveal his intentions until March 15. He is just completing his third year on the board.

BELANGIE

Possible Race Is Hinted For Atherton

Two sets of papers were taken out Tuesday for the Atherton city council race in addition to those of the two incumbents who have already filed but at press time, the prospective candidates indicated by this had not filed them.

Atherton City Clerk W. Howard Boren also reminded voters that the deadline for registering to vote in the April 10 municipal election is Thursday night.

The incumbents who have filed are Henry N. Kuechler Jr., a gold mine company executive, and Edward L. Turkington, head of the United States Small Business Committee with offices in San Francisco. Both men are completing four-year terms on the council.

Trustees Hear Progress Reports On Three Schools

Progress on the building of the seven classroom addition at Oak Knoll school, on Stanford Village site acquisition and aimed at profitable disposal of Central school were discussed by Menlo Park elementary school district superintendent Melville J. Homfeld in his monthly report to school trustees this week.

The foundation for the addition to Oak Knoll school will be started next week. The district has contracted for the addition with the E. J. Leep construction company with Kingsford Jones as the architect and Ed Light as inspector.

Further meetings are being held to discuss the district's site acquisition at Stanford Village. Dwight Adams, representing Stanford university, has reiterated the university's position that there will be no resistance to any action on the part of the district to acquire a school site which will reduce the number of student family housing units now being used.

He further stated that if and when the university no longer has need for the housing units, the Council Names 3 To City Posts

Three appointments to various city commissions were approved by the Menlo Park city council

Ray Tofanelli, 150 Santa Margarita avenue, was named to succeed Mrs. Donald Newport as a member of the city's recreation commission. Rose Ann Sayler, a member of the same group for the past several years, was reappointed to the same group.

Frances J. Schultz was appointed coodinator of women's activities and public information, for the city's Civil defense council.

Former Mayor 'Firm' in Campaign Plans

Announcing his firm intention of running for the state legislature, Michael L. Belangie, former mayor of Menlo Park, this week declared he expects to run for the post of assemblyman from south San Mateo county's 26th district. At the same time, he gave wholehearted support to the rumored candidacy of incumbent Assemblyman Richard J. Dolwig of Atherton for the state senate seat now held by veteran Harry L. Parkman of Woodside.

"I believe Dick Dolwig has demonstrated during his eight years in the assembly, that he is the man to represent San Mateo county in the senate," Belangie said.

"Parkman has done an excellent job," he continued, 'but I believe, after his 30 years in the state capitol, he has earned a rest and should give another man the responsibility. Dolwig is the obvious man for the job.

"Believing that Dolwig is the proper candidate for the senate and that he probably will run for that post, I intend to announce my candidacy for the assembly as soon as he has made his intentions clear."

DOLWIG BACKED

Dolwig's possible bid for the senate seat received a boost last weekend when the San Mateo County Young Republicans and the Menlo-Atherton Young Republicans both passed resolutions urging him to seek Parkman's post.

Parkman, meanwhile, has declared his intention of seeking re-election and has accused Dolwig of being behind the Young Republicans' action.

Belangie, 48, who resides with his wife Mary at 428 Felton drive, served on the city council here from 1950 to 1955, and as mayor in 1953-54. From 1940 to 1943 and again in 1945-46, he served in federal administrative posts in San Francisco, first with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, later with the Public Housing Administration. During the war, from 1943 to 1945, he served in the South Pacific Theater as a technical sergeant with a combat battalion of the U. S. Army Engineers. Since 1946 he has been owner and operator of Menlo Textiles, a weaving concern.

C. OF C. PRESIDENT

In 1951, Belangie was first president of the then newly organized Chamber of Commerce of Menlo Park. He is a member of the Menlo Park Lions club, the B.P.O.E. Lodge 1471, the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Los Altos Golf and Country club.

Dolwig, an attorney, resides at 23 Winchester drive, Atherton. He has served in the state assembly since 1947.

Parkman served six years in the assembly, starting in 1927, then switched to the senate seat which he has held continuously since. He resides at 1450 Canada road, Woodside.

Challenger:

Candidate May Oppose Bond Issues as 'Burden'

While the two incumbent Menlo Park city councilmen seeking re-election April 10 have voted to place the $220,000 park and library bond issue on the ballot, their lone opposition, Colonel H. H. Perkins yesterday indicated that he may oppose the bond issues.

One bond issue of $120,000 is for a new city library building in the Menlo Park civic center and the other for $100,000 would provide two parks in the easterly portions of the city.

Incumbent Councilmen Vaile Andrus and William Lawson Tuesday night joined a unanimous vote of the city council to place the bond issue on the ballot.

Colonel Perkins, (U.S. Army retired) said he 'is not opposed to anything for the recreational and educational good of the community so long as it does not put too big a burden on the taxpayer." The candidate indicated that he is not opposed to one large park but cannot see the advantage of two small parks. "Many of these issues (referring to parks and the library) could have been taken care of a long time ago," he said.

The retired army officer, now 59 and a resident of 55 Willow road, said he "wants to serve the entire community and that he will act in an unbiased way on all issues." He said he is opposed to keeping the affairs of the city in the hands of one small group and that all elective officials should hold office for only one term.

"I think it is poor policy to keep electing incumbent councilmen. I have no quarrel with present members of the city council but feel the city as a whole would be better off if other people are given a chance to serve," Colonel Perkins said.

LIKES MENLO

The colonel said he looked all over the Pacific coast for a place to live following his retirement in 1953 and finally decided on Menlo Park "as the most desirable place." He is presently employed by a Palo Alto real estate firm.

The candidate is president of the Linfield Oaks Homeowners association and spearheaded the drive against the extension of Willow road to El Camino Real. He entered the army as a private in 1916, served in France and Germany and rose through the ranks to colonel

Andrus, 68, councilman appointed a year ago to replace Michael Belangie who resigned because of the press of business, this week issued the following statement on his candidacy:

"As a resident of Menlo Park since 1948, I have become increasingly interested in the civic activities growing out of the city's impressive growth and improvement

"During my year's service on the council, I have taken part in the discussion and disposition of many and varied matters docketed on the council agenda. If elected I will continue to listen with impartiality to all parties appearing before the council on matters which concern them.

"I further state that I will stand and vote for that which, in my opinion, is best for the citizens and business interests of Menlo Park subject of course to governing city laws," Andrus concluded

Andrus lives with his wife at 1068 Marcussen drive. They have three children and nine grandchildren. He recently retired after 48 years with the Southern Pacific

Lawson, a resident of Menlo Park for 10 years and a member of the city council for four years, states "that if re-elected, I will continue to serve in the same manner as in the past. Foundations have been laid for the growth of the community which we will be proud to live and work in."

He said he is going to work for the library and park bond issues because "land is becoming more scarce for parks day by day and soon there will be none available at all. And the proposed library will be the first building in the new civic center and should be in keeping with the master plan."

2-Story Building Begun on Avenue

Construction of the first two-story business building in Menlo Park in the past several years was officially signalled this week, with issuance of a building permit for such a structure at Curtis street and Santa Cruz avenue.

Dr. Max W. Forsythe is owner of the $114,000 structure, for which Peter Kump has been named architect.

The Stevenson Pacific construction company has been named contractor for the building, which will have stores on the first floor and offices on the second. Number and size of offices depends on the tenants, according to Kump.

Announcing the design of the building several weeks ago, Kump observed that he could "no longer justify" single-story buildings along Santa Cruz avenue, in view of the high cost of land there.

City Moves for Drainage Plan

Menlo Park city council this week okayed a "request to improve streets"—a legal preliminary to construction of a drainage pipe from Valparaiso avenue, near Elder street, to the city's Arbor road trunk line.

Asking passage of the measure, which must be forwarded to the county for approval, City Engineer Edwin C. Smith said the entire job would cost about $16,000.

'No Urgent Need' for Repeal:

Sunday Meat Sale Ban Still in Effect in Menlo

Menlo Park's ordinance controlling the hours of the sale of fresh meat remained on the books this week, as the city council found "no urgent need" to repeal it.

The council tabled a measure which would have repealed the 1931 law after a representative of Draeger's markets, which had petitioned for the repeal, stated the local outlet probably wouldn't change its present hours of sale unless stores in Palo Alto did so.

Draiger's petitioned for removal of the 1931 law in order to be in a position to compete if a union agreement in Santa Clara county allows butchers in that county to remain open after 6 p.m. and on Sundays, he said. Such an agreement is now under study.

Several independent Menlo Park butchers were present, to urge the council to keep the old law on the books.

George McQueen represented the Draeger firm, which originally petitioned the council for repeal several weeks ago.

He said that the hours of sale of meat had been put on the books at the request of butchers, who have since changed their union agreement in order to compete with frozen and packaged meats which may be sold after 6 p.m. and on Sundays.

Independent butchers argued that allowing sale of meats after 6 p.m. and on Sunday would, ultimately, raise the cost of meat to consumers, since butchers working the additional hours will have to be paid overtime.

DIFFICULTY

They also noted that one of the reasons for instituting the ordinance was that, several years ago, it sometimes was difficult to inspect meat which was sold on holidays.

Among those speaking against repeal of the ordinance were Hiram MacFarlan, Menlo food center; Darwin Keahy, Alameda food center; Tony Visconti and George Terhune, Avenue food market and Karl Kroijer, Pinky's meat market, 1162 El Camino Real.

McQueen said that cost would not necessarily be raised if the local markets extended their hours, since price could be construed as a matter of volume.

He agreed with councilmen that it was not the prerogative of the city to regulate hours of sale.

In answer to a question from Councilman Vaile Andrus, he said that although some patrons of Draegers had indicated they might shop at night if the butcher shop was open longer hours, the firm would still, probably, lose money.

Countering McQueen's statement that Santa Clara county butchers might lengthen their hours, Si Larkin, Menlo Square market, said that the situation in Menlo Park is being watched south of the San Francisquito and a repeal of the ordinance might well be reflected in longer hours there.

SEES AGREEMENT

Councilman Charles Burgess then noted that there appeared to be "substantial agreement" that all buchers wanted to retain the present hours. Councilman William R. Lawson said there appeared to be no urgency.

Burgess then moved that the matter be tabled.

Speaking from the audience Mrs. Robert Knudson, 186 Watkins avenue, observed.

"Any woman who can't shop except on Sunday is stupid and ought to go hungry.

"Let's all close shop and go to a ball game."

Councilmen agreed the matter could be reopened if the exigencies of competition demanded it.

Aiding at Yuba

City Administrative Assistant John R. Johnson was in Yuba City this week, aiding the flood-devastated town's government in re-establishing its personnel and purchasing departments.

His presence was requested by the League of California cities.

Lively Session:

City Council Hears Urgent Plea For Banning Pinball Machines

With strong urging from San Mateo county members of the Palo Alto Women's club, city councilmen Tuesday night undertook to study whether the city should attempt to abolish pinball machines in Menlo Park.

The motion to study such ordinances was made after reading a letter from the officers of the women's club, and after the reading of a presentation by Mrs. Henry Broderson, civic affairs chairman for the club, describing the pinball games as "morally corrosive" and "a temptation to gamble."

The councilmen ordered City Manager C. L. Longson to obtain copies of ordinances which make the games illegal in Sunnyvale and Burlingame, in order to aid in their study.

Mrs. Broderson's presentation was highlighted by a letter from Santa Clara county Sheriff Melvin Hawley, who described the devices as "merely a replacement for the one armed bandit" and who said that "they are so used by operators wherever police relax."

Hawley's letter also alleged that pinball operators "make huge sums of money, which is available for political users, with a 'live and let live' philosophy."

Hawley is currently conducting a crusade against the devices in Santa Clara county.

VIEWS SANTA CRUZ

In her letter to the city council, Mrs. Broderson called atention to the political irregularities recently uncovered in Santa Cruz county and involving operators there.

She also said that San Mateo county District Attorney Keith Sorenson has indicated he thinks closer regulation of the devices is necessary.

She quoted Police Chief George Potter as saying that there were about six of seven of the so-called amusement devices in the city, and that these were checked for evidence of payoffs.

Mrs. Broderson also read a letter from the Rev. Floyd W. Barr, assistant pastor of the Menlo Park Presbyterian church, urging "protection of the young from the moral hazard" presented by the games.

And in an independently-written letter from Mrs. B. F. Jakobsen, 1325 Johnson street, the councilmen heard that Mrs. Jakobsen had seen one player buy $9 worth of coins during a single short period of time which, Mrs. Jakobsen's letter said, "didn't seem like amusement to her."

TELLS OF THREAT

Mrs. Broderson said she had received "threatening calls" since start of the current campaign which is being paralleled in Palo Alto and Redwood City.

Police Chief George Potter was not present at Tuesday's council meeting, but said last week that there were six or seven pinball games in Menlo Park.

Mrs. Broderson was accompanied to the meeting by Club President Mrs. David Nielsen of Atherton.

(The devices in question are of the variety which can be operated with more than one nickel at a time, with "odds" and "chances of winning" changed as more nickels are inserted.

(Since winnings, under this system, also are often more than a single free game, the devices are provided with a counter which may count as high as 200 free games.

(It is alleged by opponents of pinball games that the "free games" may be redeemed, over the counter, for a nickel apiece and that this constitutes gambling.—ED.)

land would be made available to the school district at the cost of the land to the university, somewhere between $16,000 and $16,500 per acre.

Adams agreed to obtain information for the school district about the use of Building 427 as a temporary classroom or for removal from the site if the district agreed to purchase a portion of the total site originally agreed upon.

Homfeld reported that the school district will be awaiting today's court results of disposal of school property in Whittier to see if this case will set a precedent in disposing of school property to act as a guide for disposal of Central school.

The Menlo Park school district is also awaiting replies from the State Department of Finance on how the status of the Central school property can be cleared for sale

ABC Officers Study Beer Sale To Minor Here

Alcoholic Beverage control officers last week took under submission a charge that Rossoti's Beer farden, Alpine and Arastadero roads, sold beer to a minor last Oct. 21.

The charge was made after two ABC agents arrested Perome A. Jeffris, 20, a Stanford student. The agents said they spotted Jeffries dringing, and were about to question him when "somebody tossed something" at the investigators, and about 100 students fled.

Jeffris admitted at a hearing last week that he had purchased beer at the tavern but wasn't asked for identification.

Edward and Mary Clark, tavern operators, denied selling him the beer but said he had produced a card which showed his age as being 21.

Mrs. Kerwin Files for Sequoia Post

Mrs. Helen Kerwin, 35 Amador avenue, Atherton, last week became the second person to file for the vacant post on the Sequoia High School District board of trustees.

Mrs. Kerwin, who is president of the Sequoia Citizens' Committee, indicated that she had reached the decision to run for this office because she feels that "my familiarity with the problems facing the Sequoia Union High School district from over three years of attendance at the board meetings and work in the education field should be of assistance in avoiding the break-in period necessary for new board members, who ordinarily have to spend a considerable period of time learning about school finance and curriculum before they can become effective board members."

Holder of a graduate certificate in social work from the University of California at Berkeley, Mrs. Kerwin is the mother of two children, one a freshman, the other a senior at Menlo-Atherton High school. Her husband works for United Airlines.

Interested in all phases of educational development, Mrs. Kerwin has served on the Sequoia Citizens' Council for the past two years, first as secretary and lately, as president. She was a delegate to the Governor's Conference on Education last fall, is a member of the executive committee of Menlo-Atherton PTA, a member of the county committee on School District Organization.

Mrs. Atkinson First to File For Sequoia Race

Mrs. Patricia R. Atkinson of 214 Eleanor drive in Woodside, who two weeks ago announced that she would be a candidate for a position on the Sequoia High School District board of trustees, last week said she would campaign "for a strong instructional program and elimination of architectural frills and extravagant construction."

Mrs. Atkinson was the first candidate to file in a race for the post being vacated by Robert J. Dell'Ergo, Menlo Park attorney who has announced that he will not be a candidate to succeed himself.

The Woodside woman said that good teachers were essential ,and that remuneration should be such as to attract them. She added that future schools should be safe, durable and adequate, with simple, easily maintained landscaping.

Mrs. Atkinson has been a resident of Woodside for the past two years. She is active in PTA, Cub Scouts and other work with civic and youth groups.

The wife of Robert W. Atkinson, engineer with the Guy F. Atkinson company of San Francisco, She is the mother of three sons, two of whom attend Menlo-Atherton high school and the other an eighth grader at Las Lomitas school.

Oberg Is Speaker Before Rotarians

Menlo Park Rotary club members were this week reminded that O.D.A. "Ollie" Oberg, Rotary International's first vice president, is to speak at next week's regular meeting of the group, to be held at the Fraternal meeting hall at 645 Roble avenue.

The meeting will convene at the regular hour, 12:15 p.m.

Final Rites Held For Owner Of Burned Shop

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday evening for Louis H. Canvin, 68, who died Saturday after attempting to rescue equipment from his burning welding shop at 2765 El Camino Real in North Fair Oaks.

Canvin collapsed after making several trips into the sheds which made up his business establishment.

County Coroner Paul Jensen of Menlo Park said this week that his death was due to a heart condition. He was not burned or suffocated but suffered a coronary thrombosis which might have been brought on by the excitement.

The fire itself, which broke out at about 10:30 a.m., did an estimated $6000 worth of damage before being brought under control, according to Menlo Park Fire District Chief George Carter.

According to witnesses, Canvin had attempted to enter the burning shop and for a repeat trip, and was being restrained by bystanders, when he collapsed. Firemen, who arrived on the scene at about that time, used a resuscitator for 45 minutes but were unable to revive him.

Canvin, who was a native of Sutter Creek, California, had resided in Redwood City for the past 18 years.

Survivors include a daughter, Marjorie Smith of Live Oak, California; a sister, Mrs. Manila Schoeffer of Sacramento and a brother, Erving of Sutter Creek.

Funeral services were under the auspices of Redwood City parlor 66, Native Sons of the Golden West, of which Canvin was a member. Funeral arrangements were by Crippen and Flynn, Redwood City funeral directors.

Last deaths which occurred in the vicinity of a fire in the Menlo Park Fire District were those of two men and a woman, who died in a house facing Alejandra avenue in Atherton in a New Year's morning blaze at the start of 1954.

Nugent Names 9 for Awards at Menlo-Atherton

Menlo-Atherton high school Principal Nicholas M. Nugent this week named nine outstanding students as 1956 recipients of the Bank of America's annual achievement awards contest in recognition of their efforts as scholars and as school citizens.

Selections were made by a faculty committee, with gold cups going to students demonstrating excellence in a major field of study and certificates going to those outstanding in special categories.

The nine were:

Dayle Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Barnes, who won a gold cup for her work in the field of fine arts and a certificate for her efforts in music; Josephine Booth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Booth, who won a cup for her liberal arts studies and a certificate for work in English.

Joanne Felkner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Felkner, won an award in vocational arts and a certificate for home-making; Fred Stark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien F. Stark, won a cup for studies in mathematics and science and a certificate for science work.

Winners of certificates only included Patricia Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Reynolds, for her work in language; David Schofield, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Schofield, social science; Ramona McIntosh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McIntosh, commercial subjects and Ken Kerwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kerwin, mathematics.

Grand Jury List Includes Names Of Area Residents

The 19-member San Mateo county grand jury will be selected Thursday from a panel of 30 persons including three from Menlo Park and one each from Woodside and Atherton. The list was compiled by Superior Court Judge Murray Draper.

On the list from Menlo Park are: Mrs. Helen S. Lawson, housewife, whose husband is city councilman of Menlo Park; Norman F. Godbe, an employe of Reynolds and company and resident of 420 Claire place; Jane M. Greenleaf, housewife and member of the Menlo Park library commission.

Prospective jurors also include: Selah Chamberlain Jr. of Woodside, real estate agent and Robert L. Chambers of 77 Frederick avenue, Atherton, an executive of Magna Engineering corporation.

The jury was to be impaneled at 9:30 a.m. Thursday in Judge Draper's court. Principal function of the jury is to investigate the operation of the various county departments and also to return criminal indictments when matters are brought for consideration by the district attorney.

MP Women To Aid GOP Conference

Two Menlo Park women have been named committee chairmen in charge of specific parts of the program of "the San Mateo county conference," being called by the County Republican Central commitee and to be attended by members of all Republican volunteer organizations in the county Feb. 22 in San Mateo.

Conference talks begin at 10 a.m. at the Congregational church, San Mateo drive and Tilton avenue, at 10 a.m. Mrs. H. E. Hallett of Menlo Park will be in charge of luncheon after the morning sessions.

A dramatic sketch on precinct work will be presented during the evening program, under the direction of Mrs. A. A. Hedge, also of Menlo Park.

REGULAR FOLK DANCE session of the Stanford Village folk dancers will be held Friday at the Stanford Village auditorium. The group meets weekly. The Friday night sessions begin at 7:30 p.m.

Menlo Woman Files for Post Held by Younger

Dr. Nancy Cross of Menlo Park, consulting chemist in private practice, has announced her candidacy for congressman of San Mateo county's Ninth Congressional District. She will oppose incumbent J. Arthur Younger at the June 5 primary.

Dr. Cross, of 1902 Palo Alto way, has been a resident of San Mateo county since 1934 and is now 35 years old. She is a graduate of Palo Alto high school, Vassar college and Stanford university.

The candidate's statement is as follows:

"In my opinion the primary function of a Congressman should be to develop and support legislation which permits and encourages the most direct and effective participation of women and men of diverse skills and interests in government and in the economic life of the community, state, and nation.

"I believe that we can find the best solutions to national problems by sound organization planning for resolving different points of view in open conferences."

Previous civic activities of the candidate include: work to put public employment on a merit basis, to revise outdated state laws to conform with conditions for mental health under present social conditions, and to have a master plan for southern San Mateo county with early designation of park and recreation sites and highway locations selected with regard to long-term safety and the development prospects of the area.

EPA Grower Names Dahlia for Leonard

A new strain of Dahlia was named for County Agricultural Commissioner Max J. Leonard recently, as one of the honors tendered at a recent dinner at the Chukker in San Mateo. The new variety was hybridized by D. C. Schroeder of East Palo Alto.

Other horticultural experts honored by the dinner, presented by the Peninsula Gardeners' association, included Dr. Albert Wilson of Menlo Park.

Flood Control Survey Near In County Area

Completion of a county survey of drainage problems of 93 acres west of Menlo Park is expected before March 1, Joseph A. Lenahan, 1180 Sherman avenue, reported last week. Lenahan was one of several residents of the area who were flooded out of their homes during December storms.

Lenahan said the county hopes to have the survey, being made by an outside engineer, completed before the March 1 deadline for making additions to the county budget. A preliminary survey by Don Wilson, assistant county engineer, indicated the extent of the property involved.

Lenahan also reported that Assemblyman Richard Dolwig had attended a recent meeting of residents of the area, and had pledged himself to present the problem to the state division of water resources.

The report was given at a meeting of the Atherton town council. A petition was also presented which marked approval of the Atherton governing body's prompt action in starting its cooperative program with Menlo Park.

As We See It:

A GOOD TEAM

A lot of politics has gone over the dam since we discussed the long career of our state senator Harry L. Parkman last week. At that time we lauded Parkman for a job well done, but suggested that, after 30 years in the state capitol, it might be time to call it quits.

Now, the Young Republican organizations of the area have come out with recommendations that our present assemblyman from this district, Richard J. Dolwig, should seek the senate seat. And our former mayor of Menlo Park, Michael L. Belangie has announced that he plans to file for Dolwig's spot in the assembly.

To us, this looks like a good team, and we hope to see these preliminary political seedlings take root and flourish.

Dolwig has proved himself a capable and vigorous legislator during his eight years in the lower house. Belangie, during his public service in Menlo Park, proved himself an active, straight-thinking worker for the public good.

When Belangie took office as mayor, he declared he would work for the completion of two major projects: first, to see that additional public parking areas were provided for in the downtown shopping district; second, to carry through the release of Stanford Village from federal ownership and to make sure that Stanford Research Institute was able to make its permanent headquarters here.

On the first project, he made his way through interminable local hearings and compromises and saw the way cleared. On the second, he handled negotiations from the local level to the red-taped halls of Washington and saw the job done.

During his career, he has worked in the upper echelons of federal bureaucracy and with the combat engineers in the jungles of the South Pacific.

We believe Belangie is eminently qualified to represent this southern district of San Mateo county in the state assembly and that he would make an excellent candidate.

This newspaper is not partisan. We have yet to see who the Democrats may slate for the legislature, and come election time, we just might support their choice.

But from where we stand today, we believe the Republicans have at hand a good team — and a winning one — in Dolwig for state senate, Belangie for assembly.

MOOT MEAT

The city council this week shelved, at least for the time being, a move to allow sales of fresh meat after 6 p.m. and on Sundays.

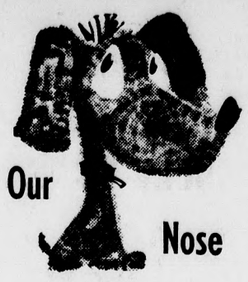

The debate, stretching over several weeks, has been interesting. Unaware of the existence of the 1931 city law prohibiting such "after-hours" sales of meat until it was brought to their attention with a request for repeal, city councilmen at first obviously felt the city had no business telling businessmen when they could or couldn't take care of their customers.

Further discussion developed the fact that "small" butcher-shop operators preferred to keep the law in effect, fearing that competition with bigger operators on a longer selling schedule could put them out of business.

It seemed to boil down to the question of whether the public's health or welfare was sufficiently involved to authorize city control. There seemed to be some justification for either view, and the council, in tabling the matter, seems to have shown that the point is still a moot one.

The result is that the matter rests where it was; "small" businesses can go on as before, and housewives are going to continue deciding on Saturday what they will want to eat on Sunday.

Had we been councilmen, we think we, too, would have found the decision difficult and would have decided the same way — by deciding nothing and leaving the question unresolved.

TELLS US:

Even a cat has a friend, sometimes.

Poundmaster Lucien Lacroix reported in his monthly summary of activities that he'd picked up 24 stray cats during January, and one of them actually had been redeemed from the Palo Alto animal shelter where it was taken for custody.

Menlo Park city councilmen viewed this statistic and scratched their heads.

As far as even the most venerable of them could remember, it was the first time, since the city's animal control law went into effect in 1950, that a cat, once incarcerated, had been redeemed by its owner.

Now it's mosaics.

Members of Gertrude Harrison's second grade at Encinal school have been making them out of small pieces of paper these last few days, but the youngsters still aren't completely satisfied. So they've scheduled a trip to Stanford tomorrow, at which time they will view the genuine tile mosaics at the chapel there.

Department of physics journal club meeting. "K-Meson interactions," Dr. Gerson Goldhaber, University of California at Berkeley, Room 372.

Moot court competition; oral arguments by second-year law students. To be held in the law school.

As we say. Lots going on.

Encinal Students Study Government

Seventh and eighth grade student council members at Encinal school are to journey to Borel school in San Mateo tomorrow, to view how student government works in an intermediate school plant.

The program is one designed to familiarize the student council members with operation of student government under a variety of conditions, and is in effect part of an exchange program. Recently, a delegation of Borel students visited Encinal, and pupils from

Your City's Business:

Work To Prevent Possible Future Flood Damage Still Going On

By C. L. LONGSON
City Manager, Menlo Park

Nearly two months have passed since the heavy rain last December. The cleanup work which follows a heavy storm has been substantially completed. Young trees have been restaked, those that were lost have been replanted and weakened limbs from large trees have been removed.

Storm drains have been inspected and obstructions removed. The major repairs and devices to provide protection from a recurrence of damage have yet to be accomplished.

The greatest amount of damage experienced in Menlo Park was along the banks of San Francisquito creek. Portions of the banks have fallen in and washed away along Woodland avenue near Middlefield road, along Creek drive opposite University drive and Arbor road.

The event of additional erosion at these locations could cause further damage to public streets and the loss of pavement which would result in the expenditure of considerable amount of public funds.

The federal government through the Army Corps of Engineers, has allocated $100,000 to defray the cost of repairs to public property along this creek.

This allocation is to be divided equally on each side of the creek. The City of Palo Alto and Santa Clara county, $50,000, the City of Menlo Park and San Mateo county, $50,000. The most that Menlo Park can expect, therefore, is the expenditure of $25,000 to repair damage to creek banks which front on public property.

The necessary surveys have been completed, maps and plans have been forwarded to the Corps of Engineers to provide adequate information for the design of new walls, etc., and the contracts for the work are to be awarded as soon as possible.

The storm caused considerable damage to private property. Fences, patios, rear yards and other improvements were swept away. Under the laws we operate, it is impossible to use public funds, city, county, state or federal, on privately owned property.

Owners of property that has been damaged should plan now so the necessary repairs and protective walls, etc., can be constructed during the appropriate season when the creek is dry.

Storm records indicate that we may expect storms of the intensity of the December storm approximately every one hundred years. We are keeping our fingers crossed, hoping that we do not experience another one this season. If we do, who wants to wait two hundred years for the next one?

DUO-LEMMA

"Why so perplexed, Walter?" we asked, as the Weathermouse trudged into the office.

"I've just been talking to my Cousin Sarabella," Walter explained, "and she has a knotty problem. Can't decide whether to marry a poor but handsome poet or a homely, but well-to-do third baseman for the Cat Dodgers."

"That really is a dilemma," we agreed.

"Yes, she must decide either for batter or for verse."

Three from City Join the Navy

Three Menlo Park residents have enlisted in the United Saates Navy at the Navy recruiting station in the courthouse at Redwood City.

They are: William Roy Morrill, Jerry Dale Davis and William Michael Keeley.

Morrill is the son of Louis Morrill, 3825 Alameda de las Pulgas; Kelley's parents are Lieutenant and Mrs. W. M. Kelley of 1240 Hollyburne avenue and Davis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Davis of 370 Hamilton avenue.

All three are undergoing recruit training at San Diego and upon completion of the training will return home for 14 days leave.

When they return to the receiving station, they will be assigned to a unit of the fleet, a shore station or one of the Navy trade schools.

Area Man Opens New RC Office

A new dealer relations consultant service for major oil company service station dealers on the Peninsula will be opened Feb. 20 in Redwood City, Charles S. Adams reported yesterday.

Adams, active for several years in Menlo Park area business circles, will open offices in the Winslow building, 234 Marshall street, Redwood City. Adams was formerly wit hthe Shell Oil company in this area and is now a resident of Palo Alto.

Riders, Driver Unhurt in Crash

Five 'teen-agers escaped injury early Saturday when a car in which they were riding overturned and crashed through a fence at Middle avenue and Olive street. No charges have been levelled aaginst the 16-year-old driver as of early this week, according to Police Chief George Potter, although the driver reported after the accident that he was trying to "get away from" another car.

The mishap occurred when the auto, owned by the parents of a 16-year-old girl who was a passenger, failed to make the turn from Middle avenue onto Olive street. It struck a fence at the home of Dorothy L. Williams, 521 Middle court and came to rest on the edge of a swimming pool under construction.

The car was a late model sedan.

Overflow Crowds Hospital Halls

An unexpected influx of medical and surgical patients during January at Sequoia hospital forced the using of 53 beds for patients in the hallways, Administrator Max Gerfen disclosed today.

However, the total all over occupancy for January was 82 per cent, Gerfen said. On the medical floor ,the average was 98 per cent; surgical floor, 84 per cent; pediatrics, 41 per cent; obstetrics, 72 per cent.

The scout, Richard Byrnes, and his father on the right are yatched with approval by advisor, Lieutenant Commander D. N. Hawkes, (left).

25 Years Ago:

In Those Days Everything Was Cheaper

The files of the Menlo Park Recorder reveal that, 25 years ago this week, the following items, here reproduced exactly as first published, were news in the young community:

February 13, 1931:

"At the meeting of the city council held last Tuesday evening the members of the board voted unanimously to purchase a new Ford for the police department, from the Toyon Motors, Menlo Park. The most of the machine was $348.20 plus the old car. It would have cost $114.85 to repair the old car and the board considered this a waste of money, when it considered the price of a brand new wagon.

"City Engineer Merl reported that $372.75 had been spent on street repair work. . . ."

FIRE DISTRICT ANNEXATION PLANNED

"An election will be held on March second to determine whether property owners of East Palo Alto will join the Menlo Park Fire District. The area to be annexed is all of the land east of Cooley avenue from the Bay road to Pulgas avenue and south to San Francisquito creek."

A DROP OR TWO AHEAD OF 1929-30

"According to Joe Veverka, local weather man the recent rain has given this season an edge of .02 over last year at this time. The rainfall to date is 6.96."

(To date in 1955-56: 21.64 inches.)

Officer Recovering From Mishap Hurts

Menlo Park Police Officer Terry Scott was this week still recovering from severe cuts and abrasions suffered when the police motorcycle on which he was chasing a violator struck a parked car here Friday night.

Attendants at Palo Alto hospital where Scott, 25, was still resting as of early this week, said they had found no serious internal injuries.

The officer was chasing a violator south on El Camino Real at 10:05 p.m. when the accident occurred in front of 489 El Camino.

Scott told other officers that the stand on his motorcycle caught the car, throwing him to the pavement and swerving his bike into the car. The latter was owned by D. J. Gilhooly of Los Altos.

The motorcycle was a new one having been purchased only a few weeks ago by the department.

Dr. Paul Kirk Is Speaker at SRI

He discussed scientific crime detection before members of the Institute staff.

RIVERSIDE MAN IS ARRESTED HERE

John Fiske Banker, 23-year-old Riverside student, was arrested on charges of drunk driving early Sunday, after being observed driving south on El Camino Real in what Atherton police described as "an erratic manner."

Police said he entered the city at high speed, but slowed down. He later turned onto Stockbridge avenue.

May 25 and 26:

Atherton Man Named Chairman Of Sequoia Education Meeting

Perry Bygdnes of Atherton has been chosen conference chairman of the Sequoia High School District forum on education to be attended by more than 1000 delegates May 25 and 26 at Sequoia high school in Redwood City.

Bygdness, long active in civic affairs in the Sequoia District, is vice-president of the San Mateo Investment company, treasurer of California Peninsula Hotels, Inc., and secretary-treasurer of the Civic Development company.

He has been a member of the county grand jury; is a member of the advisory board of the Bank of America in Redwood City and is past president of the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce, the Port of Redwood City, San Mateo county area Boy Scouts of America and the Lions club of Redwood City.

Dr. Rex Turner, superintendent of the Sequoia High School District, has been chosen as coordinator and Mrs. Helen Kerwin of Atherton, president of the Sequoia Citizens Council and candidate for high school trustee, has been selected as assistant coordinator.

Purpose of the forum, as outlined at a preliminary meeting held January 30 at Sequoia, is to exchange ideas between the public and educators and to create better understanding of present school practices in the elementary and high school districts included in the Sequoia district.

GENERAL SESSIONS

About 80 per cent of the 1000 delegates will be lay persons. A general session for all the delegates will be held on Friday evening, May 25, in the Sequoia auditorium with Dr. Arthur Corey of the California Teachers association as the keynote speaker.

On Saturday, May 26, the conference will be divided into morning and afternoon sessions at Sequoia high school. The sessions will be divided into sections for about 20 persons each for discussion of various education topics.

Others who have been selected to assist as chairmen of committees include: Stanley Schnepple, superintendent of the Ravenswood elementary school district, information and brochure chairman; Dr. Vincent Claypool, principal of Sequoia high school, arrangements committee: Mrs. Helen Palmer of Belmont, delegates committee; Andrew Spinas, superintendent of the Redwood City elementary school district, resource committee; Thomas Small, president of the San Mateo County Central Labor Council, finance committee; Howard Sanborn of San Carlos, publicity committee; Ray Spangler of Redwood City, evaluation committee.

Cub Scout Pack Has Webelos Den

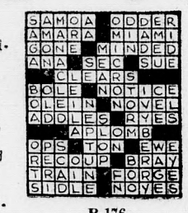

Formation of a Webelos Den with 12 cubs who have already earned their Lion badges was the principal business of Cub Pack 116 at their meeting last week at Oak Knoll school.

Those who have earned their Lion badges include: Gary Horn, Charles Roush, Jeff Lea, Evan Rischpater, Bill Rischpater, Peter Kline, Michael Felts, Bill Chase, Alden Ames, Wayne Zimring and Richard Johnson.

The Cubs completed plans to visit the Hunter's Point naval shipyards and were sedved a birthday cake in honor of National Scout week. Cherokee Den won the attendance award and the inspection award was a tie between Cherokee and Iroquis Dens.

OBITUARIES

Nick Bobick

Funeral services were held today for Nick Bobick, 82, a resident of Woodside for the past 40 years. Mr. Bobick was a retired gardener and caretaker.

Services were held at Our Lady of the Wayside church in Portola Valley followed by interment in Holy Cross cemetery, Menlo Park. The rosary was recited last night at Tinney's Funeral Home in Palo Alto.

Mr. Bobick is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ann Hirsch of Atherton and a son, John Bobick of Burlingame and three grandchildren. His wife died last year.

* * *

Olaf Christianson

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning for Olaf Christianson, 57, retired railroad worker who died at Palo Alto hospital Saturday, after a long period of ill health.

Christianson had made his home at 811 Oak Grove avenue since moving to this area from Alvarado, Minn., last October. He had been born in that community and lived there all his life, before moving to the Menlo Park area.

Before his retirement, he had been a foreman for the Soo railroad company.

Surviving him are his widow, Margaret Christianson and a son, Donald B. Christianson, both of Menlo Park. He also leaves two sisters, Clara Christianson of Alvarado and Mrs. Almer Huerst of Gulley, Minn. and two brothers, Martin Christianson of Lewis, Wis., and Harold Christianson of Glenwood, Minnesota.

Interment was at Alta Mesa Memorial park.

Joseph Carlson

Joseph M. Carlson, vice-president of the Central Electric company in Palo Alto and Redwood City and Menlo Park resident for seven years, died Tuesday night at his home, 1157 Windsor way. He was 71.

Carlson also served as vice-president and chairman of the board of the Central Electric company of San Francisco and had been a leading Pacific Coast electrical contractor for 50 years.

He was an outstanding lay leader in the Baptist church and a scholarship has been set up in his honor at the Berkeley Baptist Divinity school. Contributions are asked to the scholarship in lieu of flowers.

Carlson, a native of Chicago, came to California in 1896. He was a member of the Menlo Park First Baptist church, the Burlingame lodge F&AM, the Islam Temple Shrine and the Olympic club in San Francisco.

Carlson is survived by his widow, Bessie, and daughter, Helena, at the family home; a son, Everett Carlson of Atherton; a brother, David Carlson of Menlo Park; a sister, Mrs. Beda Westerberg of Laguna Beach and two grandchildren, Joyce and James Carlson of Atherton.

* * *

Frank S. Marshall

Frank Sterling Marshall, 60, for many years a prominent building contractor on the Peninsula, was buried last week at Golden Gate national cemetery, following death at a San Francisco hospital. Marshall moved to Atherton 25 years ago; his home was at 171 Almendral avenue.

A veteran of World War I, Marshall served overseas at that time. He was a member of Park lodge 449, F&AM.

Among other construction projects, his firm built the Hillsborough "dream house" of Sam Termini, costing $337,000.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Rose Marshall of Atherton and three children: Helen and Fred Marshall, also of Atherton and Mrs. Grace J. McConnell of Redwood City. He is also survived by four brothers and sisters, Allan J. Marshall, Clyde Marshall, Kenneth Marshall and Lorraine Marshall, all of San Francisco.

Masonic funeral rites were conducted.

MEETING DATE CHANGE

Menlo Park Fire District commissioners' meeting, normally held the second Monday of each month, has been deferred to Feb. 20 on account of Lincoln's birthday.

Discussion Group Sets Thursday Meet

The Freedom Agenda discussion group of the Unitarian church will meet Thursday at 8 p.m. in room D, Palo Alto community center instead of on Sunday as announced. Professor John Henry Merryman and Mrs. Warren Hall, both of Menlo Park, are leader and co-leader, respectively. New registrations are being taken. For information phone DA 2-5340 or WH 8-3134.

Our most successful client—his friends say he's lucky—once told us his secret. He invests, he said, as though he were the unluckiest man in the world.

It doesn't matter whether he's investing $500 or thousands of dollars, or whether he's seeking capital growth or a steady dividend payer . . . he never makes any decision without the available facts.

It's this "lucky" investor, we notice, who keeps our research department digging to supply him with facts before he makes a decision. Maybe you ought to come in and try some of that kind of "luck" on your next investment.

NOTICE OF HEARING
(Rezoning)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the City Council of the City of Menlo Park will hold a public hearing, pursuant to the provisions of Section 15 of Ordinance No. 228 of said City, on the recommendation of the Planning Commission of the City of Menlo Park, which said recommendation was made pursuant to a hearing held on Resolution of Intention No. 131 of said Commission, for the following purposes:

I. To create a new zone to be known as R-4-B (Multiple Family Residential with Additional Restrictions Applied Thereto), with the text of the amendment to read as follows:

7.1 R-4-B (Multiple Family Residential District With Additional Restrictions Applied Thereto).

(a) Uses Permitted:

(1) All uses permitted in R-4 District subject to review and approval by the Planning Commission and the obtaining of a use permit for any use for which such permit is required in R-4 District.

(b) Area, dimensions, and other conditions to use:

(1) Minimum Area: 7,200 square feet, provided that there is on each lot not less than 1,000 square feet of lot area for each dwelling unit or each four guest rooms in an apartment hotel, boarding or rooming house.

(2) Minimum Lot dimensions: Width, 60 feet; depth, 120 feet.

(3) Maximum building coverage: 50% of lot area.

(4) Minimum yards: Front, 15 feet; side, 5 feet, but not less than 3 inches per foot height of main biulding; rear, 10 feet, with not less than 40 feet between the rear property line and the second story portion of any building.

(5) Minimum off-street parking: One garage, private, for each dwelling unit, one space for each two guest rooms in each boarding, lodging house, or apartment hotel, provided that such parking is not to be located in any front or side yard; and that a private driveway, not less than 18 feet in width, shall extend along the rear property line.

(6) Building Height Limit: 2½ stories or 35 feet.

(7) Fences, hedges, and walls: Same as required in R-1-S land use district. Where the R-4-B land use district abuts any commercial or professional-administrative land use district, a six foot solid screening fence shall be erected between the two land use districts.

(8) Distances between main buildings on same lot; same as required in R-3 land use district.

(9) On corner lots the main buildings shall face that street upon which the lot has the greater frontage.

(10) All utilities must be constructed underground.

II. To rezone from zone R-4 (Multiple Family Residential) to zone R-4-B (Multiple Family Residential with Additional Restrictions Applied Thereto) the following described real property located in said City of Menlo Park:

That real property bounded by Linfield Drive on the northwest, Willow Road on the Southeast and Waverley Street on the Southwest, to a depth of 150 feet.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that said hearing will be held on Tuesday, February 28th, 1956, at the hour of eight o'clock P.M. in the Council Chambers of the City Hall, Menlo Park, California, at which time and place any and all persons interested may appear and be heard with respect to said matter.

Reference is hereby made to Resolution No. 131, above described, and other documents connected therewith, including Ordinance No. 228, and the recommendation of the Planning Commission of the City of Menlo Park, on file with the City Clerk, City Hall, Menlo Park, California, for further particulars.

PALO ALTO'S ONLY COMPLETE USED CAR

RECONDITIONING PLANT

CHECK THESE RECONDITIONING STEPS:

1. CLEANING, including steam or solvent cleaning of chassis and engine; removal of interior, trunk and glove compartment dirt; thorough exterior detergent wash; complete lube.

2. DETAILED INSPECTION to use as basis for writing an accurate and detailed repair and reconditioning order covering every component of the vehicle and including a road test over varying road conditions.

3. WRITING REPAIR ORDER with approval of Used Car Sales Manager to make sure that condition warrants investment so that final product will be competitively priced.

4. MECHANICAL RECONDITIONING.

5. BODY AND REFINISHING WORK.

6. APPEARANCE RECONDITIONING—Note that this follows mechanical reconditioning and body refinishing to avoid marring or soiling of paint, tires and upholstery.

7. FINAL INSPECTION — This is a thorough and detailed inspection by management to insure that all work ordered has been done, and done correctly. Then, and then only, can the automotive product be appraised and priced accurately.

'World Day of Prayer' Features Services in Area Tomorrow

On Friday, Feb. 17, the first Friday in Lent, the World Day of Prayer will be observed in the Menlo Park area with four church services sponsored by the United Church Women of Palo Alto-Menlo Park.

Each year the national World Day of Prayer committee offers a service prepared by authors of one of the cooperating countries. This year, explains Mrs. Curtis G. Smith of 233 Arden road, one of the participating committeewomen, the service comes from American Indian life, having been composed by the Cook Training School for Christian Leaders at Phoenix, Ariz.

First service of the series of four to be held during the day will convene at 10 a.m. tomorrow at the Menlo Park Presbyterian church at Santa Cruz avenue and Johnston street.

Mrs. Roland Midgley will be in charge; leaders will include Mrs. Leland Engleman, Mrs. A. B. Skare, Mrs. Robert Kintzinger, Mrs. D. C. Purcell, Mrs. J. Stuart McIntyre and Mrs. Nora Nixon. Mrs. Gerald Farmer will be soloist; child care will be provided.

Second service of the day will be held at 12 noon at All Saints Episcopal church at Hamilton avenue and Waverley street in Palo Alto. Mrs. W. B. Allen will be in charge.

Third service of the day will convene at 2 p.m. at the College avenue Methodist church at 457 College avenue in Palo Alto. Leaders are to include Mrs. Robert Kavinoke, Mrs. Thomas DeHaven, Mrs. F. D. Corbett, Mrs. D. L. Showalter, Mrs. F. M. Robinson and Mrs. R. B. Hughes.

An 8 p.m. service at the Palo Alto First Presbyterian church at Cowper street and Kingsley avenue will conclude the day's observances.

Style Show Set To Aid UVS Service Center

Staged by the community for the entertainment of the community—sponsored by the Menlo-Atherton unit of Voluntary Services Inc., for the benefit of the Servicemen's center at Central school—this, in short, is a summary of a gala Saturday afternoon to be served up from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. March 3.

The event is a style spectacular featuring models from the Linfield Oaks area busines firms, with the stage setting in Burgess gymnasium.

Dorel's shop on Santa Cruz avenue is providing the fashions and the City of Menlo Park has donated the use of the gym for the fundraiser. Models will come from Allstate Insurance company, Prudential Insurance company, American Insurance company, Magna Power and Tools corporation and American Hardware Mutual Insurance company.

Tickets may be purchased at the door from the servicemen and junior hostesses at the center or by calling Mrs. Stern at DA 5-0740.

GOPers Hear About 'Remodeled' Mail Service

Robert Fahs, assistant to the regional operations manager of the United States post office department, last night discussed, "The U. S. Mails Remodeled," at the monthly meeting of the Sequoia Republican assembly at the Atherton town hall.

Fahs shared the spotlight with Robert H. Power, of Vacaville, president of the California Republican Assembly, who described the state organization's part in the coming election. Power called on President Eisenhower to run again declaring, "he is the best qualified man to lead the American people."

Also on hand for the meeting was Miss Jane Zimmerman of San Francisco, Northern California women's vice-chairman of the Republican State Central committee.

Claus Spreckels, Sequoia unit president, presided at the meeting.

Menlo Democrats To Attend County Meeting

State Senator Richard Richards of Los Angeles county, the officially endorsed Democratic candidate for United States Senator at the June 5 primary, has been invited to be the principal speaker at the San Mateo county Democratic pre-primary convention on Saturday, Feb. 25, which will be attended by more than 100 Menlo-Atherton Democrats, Convention Chairman Frank Rose of San Mateo announced this week.

Leonard Cornell, formerly of Menlo Park and now a resident of Palo Alto, has been asked to serve as convention chairman. Cornell served as first vice president of both the Menlo-Atherton Democratic club and the San Mateo county Democratic council.

The pre-primary convention will be held at the Ray Park elementary school in Burlingame, beginning at 8:30 a.m. with registration. Candidates for the 26th Assembly District (Southern San Mateo county), 25th Assembly District (North county), congress and state senate will be endorsed during the morning session and will be voted upon by the expected 500 delegates.

Voting delegates will be members of the Democratic clubs throughout the county, county officials who are registered Democrats and members of the county central committee.

San Carlos City Councilman James Price has already announced that he is seeking convention endorsement for 26th district assemblyman.

Valley Residents Study Zoning

Members of the Portola Valley association were given a look Monday night at the recommendations of their planning committee for commercial zoning of Portola Valley.

Plans were based on a future maximum population of 25,000 for the valley and would expand the valley's commercial area from its present nine acres to a possible total of 27 acres.

The committee proposed expansion of three existing commercial locations — the first, on Portola road across from the Portola Valley school and between Our Lady of the Wayside church and the entrance to Hidden Valley farm. At present this area has 3.15 acres of commercially zoned land which would be increased to 5.50 acres, mostly in depth, so that the total area would form a triangle. An adjoining .87 acres would be recommended for professional offices or public facilities.

OTHER AREA

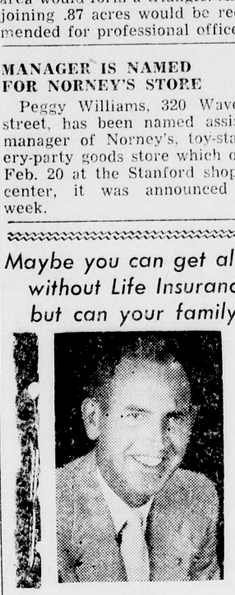

The second area would be at the Alpine-Portola road intersection, where a commercial establishment already accounts for .9 acres. To this area would be added 6.3 acres extending along Portola road and including frontage as the western end of Nathorst avenue. An adjoining area of 3.73 acres would be set aside for public or professional use. There is an acre of existing commercial zone on the western side of Portola road in this same area which is partly occupied by a filling station.

The third major area proposed is at the intersection of Skyline boulevard and La Honda road where a little over four acres of commercial area already exists. This area would be expanded to 10 acres, but the exact sites were not specified.

MANAGER IS NAMED FOR NORNEY'S STORE

Peggy Williams, 320 Waverley street, has been named assistant manager of Norney's, toy-stationery-party goods store which opens Feb. 20 at the Stanford shopping center, it was announced this week.

Menlo Cagemen Travel to Hartnell

Harboring only a ghost of a chance at defending their Coast Conference junior college basketball championship, Menlo College's hoopsters visit Salinas tomorrow night to play Hartnell. Tipoff will be at 8:15 o'clock.

The Oaks then conclude their schedule next week by playing the San Jose State freshmen at Menlo Tuesday night and meeting Concordia in Oakland Friday night.

With two league game remaining Menlo is two games behind league-leading East Contra Costa.

Injuries and ineligibility have hit Hartnell and its league record is only three wins and four losses. If all the team members were healthy and eligible tomorrow night the starting lineup would be forwards Hal Boutee and Bill Cox, center Bob Stevens and guards Ron Critchfield and Glen Tucker.

Menlo's offense is carried by all-Northern California candidate Kent Carter, left-handed freshman guard from Redding's Shasta High. Carter has a season average of better than 25 points per game.

Coach Bob Wuesthoff starts John Rishwain at the other guard with big Bill Kupiec at center and Dave Brewer and Pat Patterson at forwards.

The game with San Jose State will be featured by the appearance of Tom Blackwood, ace guard on MenloAtherton's basketball team last season. He is a regular guard for the Spartan frosh.

East Contra Costa removed Menlo from serious contention for the championship last Friday night by edging the Oaks 59-57 at Menlo.

The fast-breaking attack employed by Coach Gary Bryan's team wore down Menlo and permitted East to shoot ahead in the last six minutes of play. The Oaks had an early lead of 23-14 but held only a 32-31 edge at halftime.

The lead changed hands and the score was tied many times in the second half. East then splurged for 11 points while holding Menlo scoreless in the space of 2½ minutes to take a 58-49 lead with 6:28 to go.

Carter led all the scorers with 27 points. Weekly had 17, Garcia 15 and Charley Jackson 14 for East.

Saturday night Menlo was beaten by the Stanford freshmen 71-44 in a preliminary to the Stanford-UCLA game at the Pavilion.

Acorns Play Deaf School Here Friday

California School for the Deaf plays Menlo School in a Bay Counties Athletic league doubleheader tomorrow afternoon at Menlo college. Tipoff for the lightweight preliminary will be at 3 p.m.

Next Tuesday Menlo concludes its season by playing Concordia at Menlo. The doubleheader will also start at 3 p.m.

Both Menlo teams defeated the Deaf School and Concordia in previous meetings.

Varsity starters for Menlo for the two contests will probably be forwards Nick Fabian and Maynard Spence, center Gib Virgo and guards Mike Bambauer and Bill Fuller.

Lightweight coach Dan Diestal will probably start forwards Stan and Jon Ryan, center Jeff Davenport and guards Pete Chope and Fred Bauman.

Menlo scored a 34-17 win over rival Lick-Wilmerding in San Francisco Tuesday despite a scoreless first quarter which saw Lick players hold the ball without shooting for seven full minutes.

The city team, attempting to make Menlo come out of its zone defense, stayed out by the half court line and passed the ball back and forth while Menlo players watched from their normal defensive positions or rested on one knee.

Finally with one minute to go in the quarter Acorn coach Bob Nelson ordered his team into a man-to-man defense. Still the period ended with the score tied 0-0.

The Lick coach offered that part of the reason for the stall was that sun coming in through windows at one end of the gym was in the eyes of the players. Menlo remained in the man-to-man defense in the second quarter and gained a 9-4 lead.

Nelson's charges pulled further away in the second half and went back into the zone. Lick still played a slow game, but did not go back into the stall.

Bambauer led Menlo scoring with 11 points.

The Menlo lightweights scored a 26-25 win in the preliminary. The game was close all the way but the Acorns never relinquished the lead. It was Menlo by 13-11 at halftime.

Bauman had 10 points and Davenport nine for Menlo. Thomas led Lick with 11.

Last Friday's 42-38 loss to Emery removed the Menlo varsity from all serious contention for the BCAL championship. It left Emery undefeated in nine games and Menlo with a 7-2 league record.

Only Concordia is rated any chance of upsetting the Emeryville quint in its remaining league games.

With Spence contributing two goals and three foul shots the Acorns opened quickly and moved to an 11-5 lead with three minutes remaining in the first quarter.

At that point the Menlo guns cooled off and Emery took over backboard control. The Panthers tossed in 14 points while holding

ENDING THEIR PREP BASKETBALL CAREERS

ONE OF THE DEFENSIVE standouts on the Menlo-Atherton varsity basketball team during the season has been senior veteran Wade Hampton. Hampton, a guard, has been a "spot" player for the Bears. He came off the bench to score three goals and lead M-A to a 46-39 victory over Palo Alto in game there three weeks ago.

CONCLUDING HIS SECOND season as a regular and top rebounder on the Menlo-Atherton varsity basketball team tomorrow night will be senior forward Gary Dodson. Dodson has scored on almost 50 per cent of his shots in SPAL games and follows only Bill Hilton and Don DeFeo in rebounding for the Bears.

Bears End Season Against San Jose

Menlo-Atherton will end its most successful South Peninsula Athletic League varsity basketball season in history tomorrow afternoon against the San Jose Bulldogs at San Jose.

Tipoff for the varsity game will be 3:15 p.m.

The worst M-A can finish in the SPAL is a tie with Sequoia for second place the best Coach Bob Ayers' corps can do is undisputed possession of second place — and that would take an unlikely upset of Sequoia by rival Palo Alto.

This is the first M-A varsity team to finish higher than third in the division and the first one to win more than half its SPAL games. Only once previously has a Menlo-Atherton varsity won more than 50 per cent of its league games; the 1952 club won six and lost five in the last year before the league was split into divisions.

Last Friday night M-A's Bill Hilton established himself as a leading contender for SPAL Player of the Year honors by scoring 28 points in a 65-55 victory over Willow Glen and boosting his career total to 624.

The splurge also gave him the division scoring leadership by three points over Lincoln's Wayne Thush. In starting his last game for M-A tonight Hilton will attempt to preserve that lead over Thush and also to boost his all-time school record a little further out of reach.

Three juniors will surround the all-league center in the starting lineup tonight. Underclassmen Don DeFeo and Jerry Reed will be the forwards and junior Bob Wendell will be on guard. McNitt will be the other guard.

Concluding their careers for Menlo-Atherton, besides Hilton and McNitt, will be forward Gary Dodson and guards Wade Hampton, Jim Stanford and Ron Nutsell.

Three of the Bulldogs starters are rated among the most capable performers in the league. They are forward Taby Perez, center Bob Walker and guard Vic Madden. All are solid all-league candidates despite the Bulldogs' low standing.

The other starters are forward Ray Puibelan and guard Leo Newton. Junior center Cliff Fortin sees a good deal of action as does sophomore forward Bob Ebeling.

Hilton took charge of the locals for one of the few times this season in leading the victory over Willow Glen. He scored 12 points in the first half and then sizzled for six of seven attempts from the floor and 15 points in the second half.

Four jump shots off the post by Hilton—two at the end of the third period and two at the start of the fourth—put the Bears into a seven-point lead after the lead had changed hands 10 times in the third quarter.

McNitt kept the Bears in contention until then by scoring all 10 of his points in the third period. DeFeo stiffled a late Ram rally by hitting two shots from underneath the basket in the last 40 seconds of the game.

DeFeo had 13 points for the game. Willow Glen's Jim Wall had 18.

Lightweights Need Victory To Cinch Title

With sights set on their second consecutive South Peninsula Athletic League championship, Menlo - Atherton's lightweight absketballers take on last place San Jose tomorrow afternoon at San Jose.

The game will start at about 4:45 p.m., following the varsity contest between the schools at 3:15 p.m.

The Bruins must win to assure their second straight title. If they do they will play the Northern division winner on a neutral court in the north next Friday night. San Mateo leads the NPAL by one game going into the last night of play.

If M-A loses and Sequoia beats Palo Alto, the Bears and Cherokees will play off for the SPAL title next Tuesday afternoon at Palo Alto and the winner will play the NPAL champion.

Coach Bob Ayers' starters for tomorrow's night test will be forwards Hal Turner and Dale Crane, center Jim Sherman and guards Olin Hughes and Don Powell.

High-scoring Bob Heredia will be held in reserve with Bill Adams.

San Jose, which has won only one of eight previous league games, will counter with forwards Dave Hernandez and Al Rapazzini, center Gene deLaPiedra and guards Steve Inouye and Erne Neverez.

Menlo-Atherton had little trouble in tipping San Jose 45-31 in their first meeting of the season. The win gave the Bruins a 5-3 bulge in past meetings.

San Jose upset the locals once in a similar situation in 1953, however. M-A was tied with Sequoia going into the last game and needed a win to force a divisional playoff. San Jose was in last place but pulled off a 38-37 upset and knocked the Bears from the race.

Willow Glen became M-A's 15th victim of the season last Friday night 46-30 at M-A, allowing the locals to cinch a tie for the SPAL title.

The Rams, who had played the Bears neck and neck before losing a previous game last month, battled gamely for the first half. Willow led 9-8 at the quarter and was down only 16-13 at halftime.

In the third quarter the blitz hit as the Bruins outscored the visitors 15-5 to take a 31-18 lead. Turner and Sherman led the drive with three goals each.

Ayers used reserves for much of the fourth quarter.

Turner led the M-A scoring with 10 and Powell had seven. Little Bob Samaripa had 12 for the losers. Warren Walbergh had 11.

Askew, Brown Cited as Team Ends Mat Play

Coming up with a not too disappointing third place in PAL statistics, Coach Sam Lugonja's Menlo-Atherton high school wrestling team last Thursday closed out its dual meet season and Saturday closed up, officially, with a dual mtet at Capuchino.

Team members then elected Virgil Askew, unlimited weight class as the team's "most valuable player" of the season and named 175-pounder George Brown as the "most improved." They also elected Dave Judge as captain of the team.

As finally interpreted by Lugonja, the Bears have a nine win, five loss record, which means they are either in the PAL's third place, or tied for third. This depends on a further interpretation: that of statistics garnered by Sequoia high school wrestling team.

The locals managed to win their final dual meeting against San Mateo 24-22. A previous contest with that group had gone to the commissioners for final arbitration, since there was some question as to who won it.

Jerry Donovan, general manager, and Walter Mails, public relations director, of the San Francisco bay area Seals, were the guests of the Peninsula Sportswriters association at its regular monthly meeting last night at EuGene's restaurant in Redwood City.

Three Menlo-Atherton Football Players Nominated for West Bay All-Star Team

Three outstanding Menlo-Atherton football players are among the 60 West Bay senior high school gridders who have been nominated to play in the second annual 20-30 Club East Bay-West Bay prep all-star game next August at Kezar stadium in San Francisco.

All-PAL tackle Duane Starnes, All-SPAL guard Don Wild and fullback Bill Hilton were the M-A players nominated by sportswriters and ocaches at a luncheon at the Villa Chartier in San Mateo last Saturday.. Hilton was nominated as an end, the position he played for two seasons before last fall. He won two PAL mentions as an end and another as a back last season.

West Bay head coaches Lee Cox of San Jose Lincoln and Milt Axt of San Francisco Polytechnic will make the final selections with the help of an advisory board of other coaches and possibly sportswriters.

There will be 25 players and several alternates on the final team. It will be announced during the spring.

Advisory coaches on the selection committee are Howard Costello of Menlo - Atherton, Mike Orlich of Jefferson, Rip Miller of Santa Clara and Visco Grgich of Riordan.

A total of 31 schools in five leagues are eligible to have players on the West Bay team. Last year the West team only included schools down the Peninsula to San Mateo.

Menlo-Atherton's Troy Ratliff, the PAL football Player of the Year in 1954, was not eligible to play in that game, which the East won 20-0.

The South Peninsula Athletic League corraled the most nominations with 15. Both the NPAL and the AAA of San Francisco had 14 nominees. The SCVAL had 11 and the three Catholic schools got six.

Nominations were made by 13 San Francisco and Peninsula sportswriters, five coaches and several members of the 20-30 Club's football committee, headed by chairman Don Acton.

Young Los Angeles Basketball Sensation Is Attracting Lots and Lots of Attention

By DENNIS ANDERSON

In this day of fabulous basketball players there is one coming up in Los Angeles who may be acclaimed the greatest cager ever produced on the West Coast, including USF's fabulous Bill Russell.

College coaches and alumni are already howling at the door of Billy (The Kid) McGill, who is only a sophomore in Smogville's Jefferson high school. The reason is that the 16-year-old phenom has just been named to the All-City high school team for the second straight year.

McGill is six feet, 10 inches tall and a real string bean, weighing just 200 pounds. But the scouts say "Wait until he's stopped growing and he'll fill out plenty."

Billy was so good that the Helms Foundation made him the center on the all-star team and moved the league's Player of the Year, who was also a center, to a forward position. McGill made the third string honor team as a freshman.

The Kid averaged 16.9 points per game in league contests and got 84 more in four post-season tournament games. His play caused one Los Angeles sportswriter to comment, "There just isn't a prep center like Billy the Kid. He's the hottest prospect ever developed in this city."

Which is saying a lot for a city of two million people.

Short Notes

The 1956 All-South Peninsula Athletic league basketball team will be announced in the Recorder next Thursday. Don't be surprised if two Menlo-Atherton players on the club, even though the Bears are finishing second to Lincoln in the championship race . . . Menlo-Atherton jayvee cage coach Bill Loftus says sensational Fred LaCour of St. Ignatius is a cinch to enroll at USF, which is Loftus' alma-mater. But other sources say that the Hilltop is the furthest thing from LaCour's mind: he will decide between Santa Clara, St. Mary's and California . . . The Recorder was the only Peninsula newspaper to correctly predict the champions of both the North and South PAL basketball races—San Mateo and Lincoln, respectively . . . Shucks, t'warn't nothin'.

HOW'S THIS FOR consistency. In his four years in the All-America conference, Otto Graham completed 55.8 per cent of his passes, according to the Sporting News. In six years in the National Football league, it was exactly the same, 55.8 per cent.

Carol Tait Scores For Swim Club In Oakland Meet

Carol Tait, Menlo - Atherton high school swimmer from East Palo Alto, was high in Santa Clara Swim club scoring in last weekend's third annual Oakland metropolitan swimming championships.

Miss Tait, a candidate for an Olympic swimming team berth next summer, won the 100-yard freestyle in 1:03.7 and took second in the 200-yard backstroke in 2:38.7.

Mary Mahaney of Atherton placed second in the women's 100-yard butterfly event in 1:12.2 and second in the 13 and 14 year olds' 100-yard freestyle in 1:03.2.

Ann Warner of Menlo Park got thirds in the 11 and 12 year olds' 100-yard backstroke (1:22.4) and breaststroke (1:25.5).

Karl McCrary got a third in the nine and 10 year old boys' 50-yard freestyle in :32.1, a third in the 50-yard backstroke in :37.9 and a first in the 50-yard breaststroke in :39.7.

Burgess pool star Debby Lee led the Santa Clara scoring with 17 points. She won the girls' eight and under 25-yard freestyle in :16.5, the 25-yard breaststroke in :21.0 and took third in the 25-yard backstroke in :20.8.

Starnes Named Most Valuable Bear Gridder

All-PAL tackle Duane Starnes today holds the first annual Block M-A blanket award for being judged the Most Valuable Player on Menlo - Atherton's football squad last fall.

Starnes was presented a large maroon blanket with gold trimming, a gold M-A and his name inscribed in gold in one corner by football coach Howard Costello at an all-school assembly yesterday.

He also received a Peninsula Sportswriters association certificate naming him on the All-PAL honor team. His were the only athletic awards presented at the assembly.

Costello cited Starnes for his steady play for the Bears. "He was probably the most consistent player on our team. He always gave a good account of himself and always hustled both in practice and in every game. He never had a bad day."

Starnes was nominated for a position on the West Bay team in the second annual 20-30 club high school all-star game at Kezar stadium next August by sports writers and coaches. (See story in column two).

He won four football letters at Menlo-Atherton, two in varsity competition and two on the froshsoph team.

Starnes is interested in playing college football, probably as a guard. (He is 5-11 and weighs 170 pounds). He has not yet made any choice of a college to attend, however.

Selection of Starnes as the Most Valuable Player was made by the coaches and sportswriters.

Newcomers Resume Weekly Golf Sked

Thirty members of the Menlo-Atherton Newcomers' club's golf section yast Thursday decided to resume the groups' regular Thursday morning sessions at San Mateo links, with first such meeting to be held today at 9:15 a.m. at the first hole.

Low putts will be the order of competition today, according to Mrs. James O'Donoghue, chairman of the group.

All Menlo-Atherton area women interested in golf are welcome to join the Thursday morning sessions, she said, or may call Mrs. O'Donoghue at DA 2-3904.

Another eclectic tournament is planned for the near future, she added.

Jayvees Face Mountain View In Cage Finale

With a 13 win, two loss record behind it as of Tuesday and its season final here tomorrow, Menlo-Atherton's junior varsity basketball team is near completing just about as successful a season as they could wish.

The Jayvees pulled themselves together to turn in their best performance of the year last Friday against Fremont high school, according to Coach Bill Loftus, winning 63-41. The coach predicted, incidentally, that many of his charges would be ready for the varsity when another cage season opens next fall.

The win-loss record puts the Bruins on top of their loop. However the circuit isn't an official one and includes teams representing schools in both the Santa Clara Valley Athletic league and the Peninsula Athletic league, with no titles or trophies at stake.

For its final opponent, the Jayvees meet Mountain View, a team rated high by Loftus

Starting will be Larry Irwin and Lynn Larson in the forward spots, Bill Bull at center and and Wayne Marino and Barc Corbus as guards.

In last Friday's game, the rangy center, who's been playing without glasses for the last couple of weeks, got the range with the aid of a new pair of specs and paced his teammates by sinking 19 tallies.

Larson got 17 points and Marino, working from his guard's position, got 14.

Shooting and guarding were both exceptionally good, said Loftus, with this accounting for the difference in scores of winners and losers.

DERRY SCORES 15

Jim Derry of Menlo Park scored 15 points as Bellarmine Prep chalked up its 34th straight win over high school opposition Monday by turning back Salinas 61-41 at Santa Clara.

County Basketball Meet at Burgess Gym

The star-studded San Mateo county class AA invitational basketball tournament resumes Sunday at Burgess gym with the completion of first round games.

Four games will be played in the single elimination meet, which has brought together 16 of the top semi-pro basketball teams in Northern California. Many ex-college, service and high school stars will make appearances.

Two of the top-rated tournament teams—Green Frog super barkets of San Jose and L. C. Smith of San Mateo—will make their debuts in separate games.

Green Frog features several members off last year's San Jose State basketball team — all-CBA guard Carroll Williams, high-scoring Bud Hjelm and sharpshooting guard Bob Bondanza, along with former Spartan great George Clark, now coach at San Jose high school.

Stanford footballer Bruce Van Alstyne, his brother, Byron Van Alstyne of USC, Bob Stienkamp and Augie Bullwinkle of St. Mary's and Joe Greenbach of Santa Clara are listed on the L. C. Smith roster.

Other basketball "names" who will appear in Sunday's action will be Dick Faszholz (California) for Ensor AC of Berkeley, Clyde Conner (COP) for Quality radiator of Stockton, Ray Snyder (OSC) and Larry Brady (San Jose State) for Leseman carpets of Sunnyvale.

There is no admission charge for the games. There is seating for more than 300 spectators at Burgess.

The complete schedule for Sunday's games:

11 a.m. — Green Frog super markets of San Jose vs. Quality radiators of Stockton.

1 p.m. — Franklin Downs of Modesto vs. Leseman carpets of Sunnyvale.

3 p.m.—L. C. Smith of San Mateo vs. Davidson pork products of Oakland.

5 p.m.—Ensor AC of Berkeley vs. Bill's sport shop of Hayward.

The four winners of Sunday's games and the four winners from last week will combine for quarterfinals on Feb. 26. Semi-final and championship rounds will be played March 4.

The nightcap of last Sunday's games, between the Parchester Villagers of Oakland and Whizzer's AC of Vallejo was described by veteran Burgess onlookers as one of the fastest games ever played in the gym.

Parchester scored an 85-79 win, tying the gym record for the most points scored in one game by an adult team. Action kept most of the approximately 100 fans in attendance on their feet throughout the contest.

Parchester's Skip Carnegie led the scoring with 29 points on 10 field goals and nine free throws. Jas McElvane had 20 for Parchester. Frank Jackson, a deadly hook-shot artist and outstanding rebounder, topped Whizzer's with 27.

Fred Giannini took individual scoring honors for the tourney when he put in 36 points on 13 goals and 10 charities in leading Giacomini trucking of Petaluma to a 87-84 win over Leonard's sport shop of San Jose. George Slender hit 28 for the winners.

Ex-OSC ace Jim Padgett scored 27 for Leonard's, who led 44-40 at halftime. 49er football star Bill Wilson had 22 and former San Jose State great Ed Magcetti had 16 points.

Lowe realtors of Palo Alto stayed in contention by whipping Fisher and Peterson of Modesto 83-69. Bob Pederson of Stanford had 19 for the winners.

The San Francisco fire department, champion in the recent Menlo Park industrial tournament, topped Chipponeri and Robinson of Modesto 73-63 with John Flaherty and Bill McGurn each scoring 18.

M-A Athletes Ready for Spring

Varsity Baseball . . .

Menlo-Atheron varsity baseball hopes have received a jolt from the news that ace pitcher Larry (Flash) Miller will not be available until at least the start of South Peninsula Athletic League play in April.

The junior righthander, considered the best pitching prospect at M-A since Bill Gibbs in 1954, is wearing a cast on his leg after having an operation to remove bone chips from one ankle. The injury was suffered while playing frosh soph football as a freshman at Menlo in 1953. It has already caused him to miss one summer of Babe Ruth league baseball.

Coach Howard Costello cautioned that Miller might not be available all season. "He won't get the cast off for almost a month and it'll be a long time before that leg will be strong enough for him to pitch. We hope he'll be able to play part of the season but we're not counting on him."

Costello moved his candidates to Flood park Tuesday after spending the first week of practice throwing and playing "pepper" games at the high school campus. He planned to begin batting and fielding drills this week.

Workouts will be stepped up next week when eight candidates report from Bob Ayers' basketball team. The try-out list will be increased to 37 at that time. Costello plans to carry a squad of 20 for the season.

The Bears open a 17-game schedule March 9 against Carlmont at Flood park. All M-A home games and practice sessions will be held at Flood.

SPAL play begins April 6. Menlo-Atherton finished in the league cellar last year with two wins and eight losses. They are rated "in the middle" of this year's race.

Track . . .

Coach Don Dorfmeier's Menlo Atherton track team started limbering up this week, but shear volume alone indicates a long process before the A, B and C squads are ready to start their spring campaign.

A total of 99—count 'em, 99—lads have turned out for the sport and have been assigned to the squads.

The varsity, usually the biggest, isn't quite that pre-eminent this year. But the squad is loaded with veterans as well as challenging lads up from last year's lower weight classes. Thirty-two have turned out for A's.

A total of 28 have signed up for the B squad, Dorfmeier said.

Biggest surprise of all, however is the C squad, which has 39 prospective members. The lightweight squad is normally the smallest of the three, and interest is usually lower because fewer events are run by it.

More Baseball . . .

Menlo - Atherton's frosh - soph baseball team got practice under way this week, with pitchers all over the place and the spaces in between filled with other applicants.

Coach Stan Bettencourt said yesterday that 90 boys had placed their names on his roster, and were working out on the Ringwood avenue turf in preparation for the opening of their season on March 1. The mentor admitted that he hadn't had time to see what all the boys can do.

But he named at least 10 aspirants to the mound staff, which should indicate a substantial stable even after it's trimmed.

Returning veterans who have shown keen eyesight thus far in practice include Bob Anderson, Roger Postlewaite, Bud Jones and George Wettach, the coach said. Freshmen who appeared to be ready to compete for mound jobs included Stu Colpitts, Ray Iawasaki, Roosevelt Jones Dave Lang and Jim Williams.

For the rest of the staff, he said, he hadn't even worked on assignments, but it is expected the squad will be narrowed down to workable size within the next couple of weeks, and other teams will be formed to accommodate the surplus.

* * *

Swimming . . .

Menlo - Atherton swim coach Tommy O'Neill this week began cutting squads to workable size, although there are still a few basketball players who have yet to report for their first aquatic tryouts of the new year.

As of Tuesday, the usually successful mentor had 14 varsity swimmers and five divers; he also had 17 B squad members and 15 C squad members.

O'Neill noted that the divers could probably be classed as B's, but are being upped in rating to fill out the varsity ranks. The lightweights run fewer events than do the varsity.

First meeting in which the locals will take part will be against Stanford's frosh at the pool on the farm, March 7.

After that, the locals will go into their regular swimming schedule.

PSEA Ends 2nd Undefeated Cage Season

Pacific Service Employees association Industrial league cagers kept their undefeated record unbesmirched for the second straight season Tuesday night, rolling over a challenging National Seals team 41-20 in a makeup game which marked the finale of this year's competition.

The makeup game decided, in no uncertain terms, who was winner of the first round of play in this year's I league. PSEA won the second round also.

As might be expected, Tuesday's win was behind the scoring of Dor Intersimone, who notched 18 markers. Intersimone leads the league with 112 points in eight starts.

As the league closed, Rec Supervisor Stan Sexton, who was in charge, noted it had been a good one all the way. Challenging Oddstad homes, which didn't show compared to PSEA in local play, got into the semifinals in a recent invitational tournament here while the utility men were dropped in the second round.

PSEA monopolized the scoring besides Intersimone, Jim Hill got a crack at the honors with 97 points as runnerup and Oddstad's Don Mosca had to be content with a third place in the scoring race, with 93 points.

Menlo to just one basket and one free throw in the next 12 minutes of the game.

The Acorns made a comeback bid in the fourth quarter when Fabian fired three jump shots from the corner. Bambauer hit a 20-footer and two charities and Fuller tossed in three straight jump shots and two free throws to move Menlo to within three points 41-38 with 28 seconds to play.

Emery's Wayne Gaskin made a free throw and the visitors controlled the ball for the final seconds, however. Gaskin, an impressive driver and rebounder, led all the scoring with 17 points. He all but cancelled out Menlo center Virgo, holding him to one field goal.

Henry Lowery and Martin Coutnew, who followed Gaskin in Panther scoring with 11 and eight, helped give Emery a terrific rebound edge over its taller opponent.

READY FOR PLAY—Paul Schaeffer, member of the Menlo Players' Guild and Pierre, a member of the cast of the Guild's forthcoming presentation of "Ladies of the Corridor," may not be going over their lines, but they are shown as they met at the Burgess park Little theater recently, where the show will start its "run" a 8.15 p.m. tomorrow evening.

Encinal Storms in Finale to Cop Eighth Grade Cage Title

By BOB KINSLEY

Last week at Burgess park gym, Elementary School basketball ended with a championship game and a forfeited game. Encinal outplayed Menlo Oaks 30-19 in the championship game and St. Joseph failed to show up with their game against Las Lomitas.

In the seventh grade action also, there was some real exciting action. In the first game Las Lomitas played St. Joseph in a real close affair. In the second affair Encinal opposed Menlo Oaks. In the Las Lomitas vs. St. Joseph game, the boys from Las Lomitas beat St. Joseph 13-14. The winners came through with a 10 point first period to pretty well assure the game. The biggest scoring period for the losers was the third one when they scored six points.

In the second seventh grade contest Encinal was defeated by Menlo Oaks. The winners scored eight points in the second period Encinal scored six points in the first period but they were never in the lead after that. The final score was 17-11.

Encinal scored 12 points in the last period to come through with its 30-19 victory.

Al Pryal of Menlo Oaks and Bill Simon of Encinal each scored eight points to tie for the scoring honors.

Menlo Oaks was held scoreless in the second period and that proved to be the deciding factor. The Menlo Oaks team was really crippled with the loss of their six-foot center, Dave Miller.

The final eighth grade standings were in the following order: First, Encinal, then Menlo Oaks Hillview, Las Lomitas, and St. Joseph. Encinal had a 4-0 record Menlo Oaks had a 3-1 record, Hillview had a 2-2 record, Las Lomitas had a 1-3 record, and St. Joseph registered no wins and four losses.

Oak Knoll Wins Sixth Grade Loop

Oak Knoll school sixth graders brought a basketball title to west Menlo Park, topping all other teams in their division in a single round robin tournament which was completed Friday.

But Encinal school fifth graders taking note of the records established by their seventh and eighth grade counterparts, brought home the top honors in that league, balancing the competition between east and west.

In order in the standings, sixth grade teams behind Oak Knoll included Encinal, Hillview, Willow, Laurel and Fremont school; in the fifth grade, behind Encinal, it was Oak Knoll, Hillview, Willow and Fremont.

The league was co-sponsored by the Menlo Park recreation department and participating school districts.

Players' Guild Production Opens Friday

The west coast premiere of "Ladies of the Corridor" will be presented by the Menlo Players Guild Friday and Saturday nights, Feb. 17, 18 and 24, 25 at the Burgess park Little theater. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

The play is written by Dorothy Parker and Arnaud d'Usseau and the action takes place during a year in the Hotel Marlowe in New York City.

The cast includes Mary Anderson, Stanley Cottrell, Georganna Meller, Jane George, Robert Pierce, Gordon Sears, Cory Dudley, Lucille Monnette, Patricia Kallenbach, Charles Dickenson Harriet Shores, Dorothy Higgenbotham, Ruby Bernstein, Eddy Russell, Paul Schaefer and Winona Walston.

Production staff members are Jerry Le Grand, R. Winston Sparrow, Ima R. French, Bill Wahl, Mary Mountford, Jane Ditto, Barbara Whittemore, Carol Hurley Doug Whittemore, Dr. Louis Rothenberg, Andy Anderson, Stone Wahl, Ken Patton, Junia Swain Bob Hoffman, Gen Dean, Be Bogue, Peg Wahl, Thelma Schaefer, Bern Ann Abbaduska, Gale Mountford, Marjorie Sparrow, Bill Wahl, Paul Schaefer, Fred Bundsen and Cal Rothenberg.

The house staff includes Bern Ann Abbaduska, Peggy Wahl Lilyan Tribe, Nora Weissman, Joe Reber, George Mountford, Barbara Rothenberg, Betty Grass, Natalie Anderson, Kay Barker, Gen Dean, Marguerite Elkins, Helen Wallace, Billie Bundsen, Nancy Dobson, Lorraine Bakke and Thelma Schaefer.

Crane Is Spartans' Athlete of the Month

Tom Crane of East Palo Alto was selected San Jose State Athlete of the Month for January by the Spar-Ten boosters club last week.

Crane, a senior guard and leading scorer on the San Jose basketball team, was cited for his "fine floor play in leading San Jose to six straight victories during the month."

Crane was an All-Peninsula Athletic league cager in his senior year at Menlo - Atherton high school in 1952. He works for the Menlo Park Recreation department as a playground director during the summer.

Writer To Speak

"The Way of One Writer" will be the topic of a lecture to be given next Tuesday evening at the auditorium, Memorial hall, on Stanford campus, by Frank O'Connor, Irish author now living in the United States.

The lecture, one of the regular Tuesday evening talks presented at the auditorium, is free and open to the public and begins at 7:30 p.m.

Garden Editor Tells Ways of Producing Winning Entries for Flower Shows

Menlo Park (Cal.) Recorder
Thurs., Feb. 16, 1956

By ITALIA CROOKS

How a person can tell whether or not a rose is a potential prize-winner was one of the many things described recently by Mrs. Iva Newman, garden editor for the San Mateo Times, at a recent meeting of the Garden club of Menlo Park.

The preparation of such plants, also, was described by the garden club guest, at the group's monthly meeting at Little House.

A prize taking rose should be slightly opened with outside petals rolled down round. These can be coaxed to roll, with great care, over the finger.

The high point of the center of the flower must be compact with no split center, and the stem should be about 14 inches long and the blossom of a good bright clear color.

Do not cut thorns from the stems, Mrs. Newman warned. If foliage is left on, it must be perfect in shape, glossy and green, and, of course, free from pests.

In order to enter for competitive judging three roses of same variety must be shown.

Thees same rules apply for all cut flowers with stems in proportion to size of flowers. To avoid having buds open too soon, place flowers in warm, or tepid water, Mrs. Newman continued.

Peonies are judged for fragrance as well as perfection of blossom.

Delphinium can be shown with flowers growing also on side shoots. In disbudding flowers, do it very early in season, while buds are tiny, and do not leave a scar. Floribunda roses may be displayed in bunches of one to three or five.

DRIFTWOOD

Driftwood is wood weathered by water from the ocean or straem. Good form is any wood used in accenting or as a background of an arrangement. Any figurine or wood, used in a floral arrangement, must agree in color or harmony and be of value to the whole. Stones and shells also follow the same rules.

Pruning Can Improve Fruit Trees If Moderation, Sense Are Used

By TERRY LEE

"Moderate pruning" is the by-word of orchardists these days.

Tests run on pear trees in Santa Clara county show that moderately pruned trees yield half again as much as those severely pruned The old way was to thin out new growth and head it back to eight inches.

Now, there is less thinning of new growth and it is cut back only one-third to one-half, according to vigor and rigidity. Interestingly, the moderately pruned trees have developed bigger, stronger trunks.

Here is a chart that may help the home gardener:

Peaches under 10 years old leaves 20-40 inches of branch; over 10, 12-30. Apricots under 10, 12-30 over 10, 10-24. Plums, quinces under 10, 12-24; over 10, 9-18. Almonds, prunes, apples, pears, cherries, under 10, 9-18; over 10, 6-10.

Pruning a tree is simple if a few rules are followed: sharp implements, a knowledge of some of the rules about a particular tree, and a dash of the artist.

In general, pruning consists of thinning out dead and diseased wood, interfering branches and twigs, along with a moderate cutting back of new leader growth that originated with last year's pruning cuts.

Make all cuts on a slant, close to a bud or large branch. Prune in such a manner that the biggest amount of new growth will go to the outside of the tree and not the center. Be sure to paint all cuts over one and one-half inches in diameter with an antiseptic paint

Fruit bearing trees should be pruned immediately. The flowering trees can be pruned when in flower, and cut back a great deal more than the fruit trees.

Improper pruning can damage and weaken any tree, and with fruit trees, reduce the amount of yield. The recent storms, however have proved that it is essential to trim a tree enough to keep it from having too thick a top, or long weak branches. Remember the saying "Every tree should be pruned so the birds can fly through it."

Apricots produce on short-lived spurs usually originating from two-year-old wood.

Moderate thinning out and heading back of new growth is the usual practice. Plums are pruned almost the same way. Peaches and nectarines should be pruned the most, as they produce on last year's wood. They must be thinned out annually and enough old wood removed to stimulate new replacement wood.

Apples and pears produce on two-year-old fruit spurs that live a long time. Light pruning will encourage replacement growth and admit sufficient light to all parts of the tree. This is true of the walnut, and as these trees get older they should need little more than shaping and center pruning.

Cherries need less pruning than any other fruit, as the spurs will produce fruit as long as 12 years. Only 10 per cent of the fruit bearing limbs should be cut to assure a future supply of growth.

It is important that all fruit trees be pruned annually, when they are dormant. It is wrong to give them a severe pruning every three or four years.

The rest of the garden should need little pruning except to shape up a plant and cut off damaged branches.

Intelligent planting solves a great many pruning problems, for it is bad for all concerned to try to keep a tall shrub in bounds under a window.

I enjoy playing with a few shrubs—a variegated pittosporum, Hollywood juniper and oleander—which we have kept dwarfed, open and angular, but these are the exceptions in the garden and need monthly watching.

GARDEN CALENDAR WEEK OF FEB. 16

Begonia tubers should be put in vermiculite or peat moss to let them sprout before planting them in pots. The concave side of the tuber produces the stem shoots and should barely be covered.

Place in a shady spot and keep moist. The plants can be put in permanent pots or the garden in about a month.

The flowers will face in the direction the leaves point. Feed the plants wih fish emulsion when the buds start to set. Big tubers produre more flowers and are worth the extra pennies.

The color mass produced by a flowering tree in a garden is a dramatic thing this time of year. The early colors are intense and need careful placing.

The purple-leaf plum has dark pink flowers.

These harmonize with the pink heather now in bloom, but not with the remaining pyracantha berries. It also clashes with the bright yellow acacia trees. Do keep it near a neutral fence or solid green background.

It is important to use a generous amount of peat moss when planting acid-loving, shallow rooted plants like camellias, rhododendrons, daphne, skimmia, pieris. Actually, any plant does better with humus around its roots.

Root hair growth is encouraged and moisture retained by humus. However, peat that comes in a bale is quite dry and has developed a form of surface tension against water. A handful, held under water and then released, will pop to the surface still dry.

It acts the same way if mixed dry with soil. The water will be taken up by the soil but not the peat. Around the roots of plants this initial dryness can be fatal The remedy is simple. A table spoon of liquid detergent merely blended with a pint of water, and sprinkled on the peat will permanently break the "surface tension" and the peat will be able to quickly absorb water.

This detergent action works on the same principle as the commercial "non-ionic" wetting agents — and detergents are a lot cheaper Flakes may be used, but liquic detergents are easier to blend with water.

A lot of daphne looks sick from the winter's overdose of water. If all the leaves have not dropped, it may still survive. Try a mulch of compost to encourage the growth of surface roots.

Stanford Golf Course Reopened for Play On Special Circuit

The Stanford golf course has been re-opened to play but all damages caused by December rainstorms will not be repaired until late spring.

Four foot-bridges were destroyed and about $25,600 damage caused by the storms.

Until complete repairs are made the course must be played in this order: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 13, 12, 8, 9, 10, 11, 15, 16, 17, 18.

The practice hole near the 18th will be put into use to take the place of the par 3 14th which was put out of commission by the storm.

Members are required to play temporary greens on the fourth, seventh and ninth holes.

The Stanford Golf Club's board of trustees has voted to freeze the handicaps of all members until the course is back to normal.

33rd YEAR—No. 7 THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1956 PAGE 13

Patricia Ryan, John Mirande Exchanged Vows on Saturday

Judge Edward J. Ryan of Menlo Park escorted his daughter, Patricia, down the aisle of Our Lady of Mount Carmel church, Redwood City, on Saturday morning for the 11 a.m. Nuptial Mass which solemnized Pat's marriage to John H. Mirande.

Attending the bride were her sister, Carol Ann Ryan, as maid of honor, Alice Coughlin and Joan Holland, school friends from San Mateo, and Mrs. Louis Olivero of San Carlos, the bridegroom's sister, all in secondary attendants' roles.

Graceful bouquets of pink gladioli, Carol's mixed with white, set off their white lace sheath dresses worn over aqua taffeta. Cummerbunds of matching taffeta were tied at the back, giving a bustle effect and the same material was used for headbands clasping tiny face veils.

LACE AND TULLE

The bride, who received her teaching credentials from San Jose State college, had chosen full length lace and tulle for her marriage, these fabrics repeated in her lace half-hat and fingertip illusion veil.

The bouffant tulle skirt was topped by a long-sleeved torso bodice sculptured with a low scalloped neckline. Completing her wedding costume was the bride's cascade bouquet of stephanotis and orchids.

The benedict, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. John B. Mirande of Redwood City, had tapped Fred Stein of Atherton for the post of best man. Ushers were Robert Gezelin, a cousin from San Francisco, Louis Olivero and William Janssen of Menlo Park.

Pat's cousin, Father Timothy McDonnell, read the Mass.

150 GUESTS

Approximately 150 guests were invited to Ramor Oaks, the reception setting, where they were greeted by Mrs. Ryan wearing a Dior blue silk afternoon dress with pink accessories and Mrs. Mirande in blue-black changeable taffeta set off with navy blue. Both mothers had pinned on corsages of sumbidium orchids.

Ensenada, Mexico, is the honeymoon destination for the newlyweds, and San Carlos is their future home. Before leaving for their wedding trip, the bride had changed into her going-away costume, a caramel colored linen sheath worn under a matching tweed coat, spiced with black accessories.

LONGTIME RESIDENTS

Pat, whose father serves as municipal judge for the southern district of San Mateo county and both of whose parents are long-time Menlo Park residents, was graduated from Notre Dame high school in Belmont, continuing at Notre Dame college, then to San Jose State where she was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

She has been teaching since her graduation from college.

The bridegroom is an alumnus of Sequoia high school, enrolling afterwards at San Mateo junior college and Santa Clara university.

Rosemarie Ott Married Sunday To Frank Orner

A traditional white wedding gown was chosen by Mrs. Frank Orner (Rosemarie Ott) of Menlo Park for her formal wedding Sunday at the Church of the Nativity.

The new bride's gown was fashioned of white pleated nylon net trimmed with white satin on the short sleeves and collar. She carried a bouquet of white tulips and white orchids. The new Mrs. Orner was given away by her father, Wendell Ott of Bay road.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Herb Dalas of Los Gatos. She wore a yellow nylon net dress and carried yellow daffodils and blue iris. A similar bouquet was carried by the bridesmaids, Miss Pat Gilmore of Menlo Park, and Miss Carmen Mershon of Mountain View, who wore pale blue nylon net.

FATHER McKEON

Father Thomas J. McKeon officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony. Best man was the bride's brother, Joseph Orner of Redwood City. John Ott, brother of the bride and recently returned from the air force, served as usher.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue suit and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Frank Orner Sr. of Redwood City, mother of the bridegroom chose a dark gray suit and also wore an orchid corsage.

A reception for 75 guests was held at the Union hall in South Palo Alto, which was decorated with pink blossoms for the occasion.

GOING-AWAY SUIT

As her going-away outfit, the bride chose a powder blue suit with navy blue accessories. The newlyweds left on a honeymoon trip to Palm Springs. On their return, they will live at 311 El Carmelo, Palo Alto.

The bride is a graduate of Menlo-Atherton high school and has been working the past year for the telephone company at Hillsdale. The bridegroom, son of Mr and Mrs. Frank Orner Sr. of Redwood City, is currently attending the College of San Mateo studying to be a building contractor. He served with the army in Korea.

Gray Ladies Stage Party

Patients at the San Mateo county sanatorium will be regaled this evening at a special Valentine's party given by the Gray Ladies of the Sequoia chapter, American Red Cross.

Mrs. Alexander Macpherson, unit chairman, says the party will be held for ambulatory patients, with Valentine decor keynoting the festivities. Mrs. William Coldiron, entertainment chairman, has secured services of students from the Rose Ann dance studio for the evening program.

Among those expected to attend as Gray Ladies are Mrs. Coldiron and Mrs. Moylan Fox of Menlo Park and Mrs. Roderick Bentley from Woodside.

Dale Whitney Claims Bride In Menlo Rites

During a candlelight ceremony performed late Sunday afternoon in Menlo Park Presbyterian church, Dale E. Whitney of North Fair Oaks stepped forward to claim Gaila Katherine Farmer of Palo Alto as his wife.

The bride, escorted by her father, was attired in a bouffant ballerina frock of white silk shantung, the long torso separated from the skirt by a two-inch inset of lace, the same lace repeated on the long-sleeved, princess-necked bodice.

A seed pearl studded crown held in place the ballerina length veil, which was scalloped along the edge. Her bouquet was of stephanotis and white orchids.

MATRON OF HONOR

As her sole attendant Gaila had Mrs. Fred Lagergrin of Menlo Park, who wore aqua silk shantung for the occasion. Her shoes were dyed to match her frock, princess styled with a full ballerina length skirt and tiny V'd neckline; in contrast were her headband and bouquet, both of pale yellow carnations.

Earle Whitney had traveled here from Boise, Idaho, with his wife to perform the best man duties for his brother. Jerry and Donney Finch, sons of the Russ Finches of Oakland, the bridegroom's other brother and sister-in-law, were on hand to usher some 125 guests to their places.

Among the onlookers was Mrs. Farmer, in a rose knit basked with black accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mrs Clarence Peterson, Dale's mother, wearing a champagne colored afternoon dress with black accessories and white and blue flowers, and Mr. and Mrs. James Grimm of Mountain View, the bride's grandparents.

RECEPTION SITE

Following the 4:30 p.m. nuptials conducted by the Rev. Don Emerson Hall, the wedding party and their wellwishers left for the Middle avenue home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murray. Flowers were used to outline the fireplace there, where the newlyweds received guests; punch was served from a large bowl garnished with gardenias.

When the young couple left for their "destination unknown," honeymoon, the new matron was wearing a fitted blue-gray suit brightened with red accessories. An apartment in Redwood City awaits their return.

The sister of Frank and Clyde Farmer, Gaila received her diploma from Palo Alto high school, and is presently employed at the Allstate Insurance company in Menlo Park.

Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peterson of Second avenue, was graduated from Sequoia high school and completed two years of service with the army; currently, he is working toward the goal of becoming a contractor.

MRS. Albin Schultz will be hostess on Saturday to the AAUW bridge Supper Club II.

Bobbi Mills Bride Of Gary L. Nardi

After their honeymoon in Carmel, Mr. and Mrs. Gary L. Nardi (Barbara Louise Mills) will set up housekeeping in Waco, Texas, where the bridegroom holds an assignment as air force lieutenant.

The newlyweds became man and wife at a 3 p.m. candlelight ceremony conducted Sunday by the Rev. Don Emerson Hall at Menlo Park Presbyterian church. Guests were received afterwards at the fraternal hall on Roble avenue, which had been decorated in pink and white for the post-nuptial buffet supper.

Bobbi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chalmer L. Mills of College avenue, had chosen a bouffant waltz length gown of lace for her wedding the torso lines accented with white satin binding. The bodice was fashioned with a portrait neckline and long sleeves pointed over the wrists.

'BORROWED'

As her "something borrowed" Bobbi wore a lace cap made by the mother of one of her bridesmaids; attached to it was the veil of French silk illusion.

Reminiscent of Valentine's Day nearness was the bridal bouquet of white hyacinth, carnations and lily of the valley combined with pink Cecile Breuner roses.

Pink was the color, too, of the bridesmaids' dresses. The attendants included Mrs. Edward Lattimore (Patsy Henderson), a life long friend of the bride as honor matron; Mrs. Francis Moore (Adele Henderson), Mrs. Lattimore's sister, and Mrs. Robert Griffiths a Sigma Kappa sorority sister of Bobbi's, as bridesmaids.

PEAU DE SOIE

The young women's gowns were of cocktail length peau de soie, the bodices made with rounded necklines in front, turning into V's at the back. Matching the frocks were halo headpieces and bouquets of pink carnations and green leaves.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. George Nardi of Healdsburg, Gary had asked William MacGregor to perform his best man duties. David Ramsey and Harry Stearns served as ushers, seating Mrs. Mills in a rose taffeta jacket dress with white accessories and Mrs. Nardi, wearing a beige sheath ensemble with accents of black; both mothers had pinned on white orchids.

Herbert Nanney, organist for Stanford university's memorial chapel, provided the music for the ceremony.

SCHOOLS

The new matron, who had donned a royal blue wool sheath and jacket, with black accessories, for the wedding trip, is an alumna of Fremont and Central elementary schools in Menlo Park and of Sequoia high school. She continued studies at the University of California at Berkeley where her affiliations included Sigma Kappa sorority and the UC Treble Clef society. At one time, she served as teenage correspondent for the Recorder.

Brothers of the bride are Bill Mills, who is presently stationed with the air force in Mississippi, and Arthur Mills, a sixth grade student at Fremont.

The bridegroom attended Santa Rosa junior college and was graduated from UC last year, receiving his commission in the air force. While at Cal, he belonged to the university Glee club. His only sister is Mrs. James Noel of Boyes Springs.

'Candid Classroom':

AT OAK KNOLL

Six young students from Oak Knoll school will make their radio debut at 2:15 p.m. Monday on the Menlo-Atherton AAUW-sponsored "Candid Classroom" series.

The tape broadcast, to be aired over station KFRC, will comprise reviews of six books having won the Caldecott Award for the best illustrated children's volume of the year.

Youngsters taking part are Lou Ann Smith and Nancy Hamerslag, first grade; Mary Cook and Nancy Walton, second grade; Gregg Canham and Robert Winston, third grade.

Allen Linsheid is technical and production director for the series, which will continue through May 14.

Pink and White Decor Chosen For Howell-Lawson Nuptials

MR. AND MRS LEE EDWARD LAWSON

Bands of sunlight streamed through the windows of the East Palo Alto Community church Saturday afternoon to spotlight the approach of Sue Ann Howell to the altar, where she became Mrs. Lee Edward Lawson at a double ring-candlelight ceremony.

The pretty petite bride chose a white lace ballerina length wedding gown for the event. Its fitted bodice was accented by a boop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. A white satin pillbox, studded with rhinestones held her finger-tip veil in place. She carried a heart-shaped bouquet of carnations, centered with a white orchid, and decorated with lilies-of-the-valley.

Preceding her was her sister, Felicity Carol Howell, honor maid and her sole attendant. Felicity chose a blue velveteen gown with fitted bodice, three-quarter length sleeves and a bouffant quilted ballerina skirt. She wore pink carnations in her hair and carried a pink heart-shaped bouquet.

William Clark, Felicity's fiance, escorted the bride, and her brother, Mrs. Hildred C. Howell, gave her daughter in marriage.

Rev. Donald F. Lehmann, former pastor of the church, read the marriage vows. At the pink and white carnation-banked altar.

Mrs. Edward N. Lawson, mother of the groom, wearing a navy blue and white print dress, blue accessories and a carnation corsage, was escorted to her place by her nephew, Robert Backus.

Mrs. Howell, in a navy blue nylon pin dot gown, with white accessories and carnation corsage; and her wee daughter, Deborah Jayne, were seated by another of Lee's cousins, Fred Denhart.

Just before the procession began, Mrs. Steve Miller, a friend of the bride, sang, with Ward Netsell at the organ.

A reception was held in the church court, immediately following the exchange of vows. Two tables, laden with sandwiches and punch bowls flanked the lace-covered bridal table, which was centered with a four-tier wedding cake baked and decorated by Ted Lawson, Lee's dad. Congratulations were also in order for him, for it was his birthday. Pink and white camelilas carried out the pink and white theme. Among the first to greet the young couple was Lee's grandmother, Mrs. Dacy Denhart of Menlo Park.

Garbed in a black-watch plaid suit, the new Mrs. Lawson pinned a white orchid corsage to her lapel as she and Lee left for a brief Carmel honeymoon.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS 'ON THE MARCH'

IF YOUR DOORBELL RINGS and a handsomely attired young lady offers to sell you a box or so of delicious chocolate covered mints, you are meeting one of our local Blue Birds or Camp Fire Girls, currently conducting their annual candy sale this month. Among the girls vending mints to support their own camperships are (left to right) Connie Doan, Elizabeth Yates, Kathy Ichelson, Sue Marquart and Teresa Prael. Wind-up day for the sale will be Saturday, the 25th, when girls will offer their candy to patrons of either the Buy 'n Save or Red and White markets in East Menlo Park.

FOUNDERS' DAY OBSERVANCE TODAY

REHEARSE FOUNDERS' DAY PLAYLET—Mrs. Jack West of Hillview PTA, Mrs. Edward L. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Everett Dahl, Fremont, and Mrs. George Reid, Oak Knoll are polishing lines for a play entitled "When the Spirit Moves," one of the highlights of today's Founders Day observance. All Menlo Park Elementary School District PTA's are joining in the festivities from 3 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. at Hillview school multi-purpose room. Especially honored will be the Life Membership awardees of past years, including Menlo Park's beloved retired librarian, Mrs. Vera Johnson.

M-A Juniors Complete Plans For Style Show

Members of the Menlo-Atherton Junior Women's club struck up the overture on plans for their "Symphony in Silhouettes" style show when they met yesterday at Mrs. Richard Starr's home.

Trinity hall on Ravenswood avenue and Pine street has been chosen as the locale for the March 21 event, which will feature a preview of fashions from Dixson's. Docketed for 2 p.m., the show will provide funds to benefit the club's Build A Better Community Project, this year the Menlo Park library.

Mrs. Burt C. Kendall has been appointed general chairman, with other committee generals including Mrs. Ralph Harris, decorations; Mrs. John J. Donovan and Mrs. Harold Simmons, refreshments; Mrs. Robert Birchenall and Mrs. Herbert Fulda, door; Mrs. Robert C. Heen and Mrs. Richard Starr, tickets and Mrs. Norman Bourke, publicity.

Localites can make their reservations for the show by calling Mrs. Starr at DA 2-4380.

Also presented at yesterday's meeting were reports from Mrs. Clark J. Keenan, president, on the San Francisco district session last week in Palo Alto and from Mrs. Kendall on the state board meeting which she attended in Los Angeles recently.

The date of April 14 was announced as district convention time, headquarters to be set up at the Benjamin Franklin hotel in San Mateo.

Mrs. Byron Sigler, chairman of the "Kewpie Art Clinic," a series of art classes for children of club members, remarked that the first class is slated for February 25.

College Post

Ellen Fitzsimmons, a Menlo Park coed at the Eugene campus of Oregon university, has been selected as a member of the Student Union creative arts committee at the university.

The localite, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Krueger, 211 Santa Margarita avenue, is a freshman majoring in physical therapy.

'Womanless Wedding' Sequel To Be Staged March 9 and 10

Get out the rice and old shoes, it's THAT time again!

Many peninsulans will remember the riotous "Womanless Wedding" of last year, with prominent businessmen from the area assuming saccharine roles of bridesmaids, dancing girls and sentimental aunts.

On March 9 and 10, the Palo Alto Junior Women's club is planning a sequel to their '55 production, this one known as the "Womanless Wedding's Honeymoon," with the curtain scheduled to go up at Palo Alto high school auditorium.

Taking part again are a group of prominent peninsula men, who will display an assortment of talents—as well as masculine legs.

The can-can girls of last year have changed into East Indian maidens, with Ray Renaud, Harold Starr, Gustav Krogh, Forest Steward, Burt Kendall, Tom Waskevich, Russ Guild and Alan Vandermade to show off their pulchritude to the strains of rhythmic music.

From South-of-the-Border comes a number featuring Don Bolander, Elliott Katzen, Andy Day, Dick Beyer, Lou Rapp, Norman Bourke, Bert Donovan and Jack Craner.

Found in the stage production end of the show are two well known men from Menlo Park, Del Hansen, who has charge of lighting and sound, and R. Winston Sparrow, set designer.

Mr. Hansen has taught sound at various colleges, and served as sound engineer at the University of California; he is currently specializing in Hi-Fi and sound effects in his Menlo Park business.

FROM ENGLAND

Winston Sparrow was an architect in England. He has designed sets for films in both England and Hollywood, and is noted for his painting in this area.

A well-known musical personality to appear in the show is Stan Noonan, San Francisco TV and radio star. Still another Menloite who has been cast is William Miller, destined again to do his hilarious take-off on Liberace.

Various other routines will be executed by the Mambo Four; Patterns by Dave, a popular vocal and guitar group; and Bob Heath, a son of Tommy Heath, manager of the Sacramento Solons, who will present a dance number.

SPORTSMEN CAST

Coming away from the musical portion of the show, we find such sportsmen as Chuck Taylor, Cy Pennel, Kay Bell, Ike Wilson and Chuck Tompson all taking part. Casting (for the play, that is) is still going on, and additional players will be announced later.

The idea for the "Womanless Wedding" was originated by Mrs. Burt C. Kendall of Menlo Park, who last year produced the spectacular as the club's money raising project. The show proved such a success, that the Junior Women decided to use it as their fundraising event this year, deciding on the "Honeymoon" to vary the theme.

A charity show, proceeds are destined to go toward incubators for Palo Alto hospital. The type of incubator which the club hopes to purchase costs $800 apiece, and members would like to buy at least three.

Anyone interested in reserving tickets for the "Honeymoon" may contact Mrs. Ted Van Berkefeldt at DA 5-2135.

Health Council Auxiliary Sets Welcoming Tea

Three Atherton women are among the group of new members to be welcomed into the Children's Health Council auxiliary this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arthur Bachman Jr., in Atherton.

New local members are Mrs. James Rafferty, Mrs. George English and Mrs. G. E. Olivera.

MRS. BACHMAN . . . Hostess

Other new members to be honored are Mrs. Jerome Zobel, Mrs. Duncan McLeod Jr., Mrs. Ralph Cahn, Mrs. Robert Kennedy, Mrs. F. A. Zender, Mrs. John Black, Mrs. Milton Iverson, Mrs. Harris Pottier, Mrs. Harry Burton, Mrs. Walter Heinecke and Mrs. Dale Bowen of Palo Alto.

Mrs. Wallace Sterling, Mrs. Hart Tantau, Mrs. Edward H. Heller, Mrs. James E. O'Brien and Mrs. J. Cyril Johnson will pour at the tea. Greeting new members will be Mrs. James Brainerd, Mrs. Allen Chickering Jr., Mrs. W. Ford Nichols, Mrs. Robert Block and Mrs. Phelps Hunter.

MUSIC for the April AAUW luncheon meeting will go under rehearsal at 8 p.m. Monday, when members of the choral music section will gather with Mrs. John P. Nielsen, 685 Woodland avenue. The group is open to new members now, and further information may be had from the chairman, Mrs. Ralston Harvey, DA 3-2315.

Parties for Marie Jo Jepson

Marie Jo Jepsen, soon to be a bride, hopes that all "April showers" are confined to the months before April, spring flowers or no, since she and her fiance, Ted Tanner, have set April 7 at the date for nuptials at Holy Trinity Episcopal church, to be followed by a reception in the Menlo Circus club.

As her attendants Marie Jo has chosen Mrs. Robert C. Robinson of Woodside, matron of honor, Cynthia Kaiser, Sally Kuechler, Mrs. James Harris (Sue Kuechler) and Mary Joe Tanner, the bridegroom's sister, as bridesmaids.

John Gilmore, a Delta Tau Delta fraternity brother from Stanford, has been tapped for best man duties, while ushers will be another fraternity brother, Richard Monteith, and a trio of friends from Santa Rosa, Donald Meckfessel, William Tauzer and Ward von Tillow.

A round of pre-nuptial parties started off on Friday when Gwladys Mills feted the couple at a cocktail party in San Francisco. Tomorrow Cynthia Kaiser is coupling luncheon with a kitchen shower for the bride with another strictly feminine date reserved for March 23, Mrs. Doris G. Powell's tea in San Francisco.

Next Saturday, the 25th, the G. Baltzer Petersens are teaming up with her son-in-law and daughter, the John Roberts, for a party in honor of both Marie Jo and Ted, while the all-important rehearsal dinner date has been set aside by co-hostesses Sally Kuechler and her sister, the affair to be given at the Atherton home of their parents, the Henry N. Kuechlers Jr.

APRIL BRIDE

MRS. C. A. ABELE of Menlo Park served as matron of honor recently at the marriage of Anne Wick Orr to Perry Pasmezoglu, both from out of town.

First Step Taken In Request For New Area CCPT District

The first step in a move to create a new mid-peninsula PTA district was to have been launched at yesterday's Palo Alto PTA council meeting with the reading of a letter soon to be mailed to the board of managers of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The letter, composed by Mrs. Fred Blum, president of Ventura PTA and chairman of the new district project for the Palo Alto council, and her co-chairman, Mrs. Carol Bernhardt, requested initiation of action by the CCPT board to create a new district including the parent-teacher associations of Los Altos, Palo Alto, Menlo Park, Atherton and East Palo Alto.

According to Mrs. Stanley Bishop, council president, and Mrs. Blum, the Palo Alto and Los Altos PTA's have held several talks, and feel that they—as suburban communities—have more in common with this locality than with their large Sixth District, the latter taking in an area as far south as San Benito county.

LOS ALTOS REQUEST

Los Altos, too, is planning to launch a request in regard to the new district

As for the Menlo-Atherton, East Palo Alto areas, Mrs. Blum says that no official talks or action have occurred between them and the Palo Alto council regarding the project.

However, continues Mrs. Blum, she would like to hear opinions from all PTA presidents here, and she may be contacted at DA 5-3257.

Actually, the action requested by Palo Alto council from the CCPT, would be more in the line of an explanation as to what is necessary for district reorganization and a survey to see whether such a plan would be feasible.

NOT SATISFACTORY

At present, according to both Mrs. Blum and Mrs. Bishop, the Sixth District set-up is not proving too satisfactory for residents of Palo Alto and Los Altos, since a meeting in Gilroy would call for a 100-mile round trip, something almost impossible for a great many young mothers. Thus, women who would ordinarily be interested in district level PTA work are being discouraged through the great distances involved.

Aside from the mileage, Mrs. Bishop points out, the problems of most towns in the Sixth District are not primarily suburban, and not, therefore, too similar to those of the peninsula cities.

The inclusion of PTA units from two separate counties—in this case, San Mateo and Santa Clara—appears to be without precedent. Recently, though, there have been somewhat similar district reorganizations in Los Angeles county, a fact which the Palo Alto and Los Altos PTA's feel might back up their desire.

Fremont PTA:

MUSIC PROGRAM

The "How" "What" "Who" and "Why" of music as taught at Fremont school will be explained and demonstrated to parents next Tuesday evening at the PTA's regular February meeting.

The session will open at 7:30 p.m. that evening, rather than at 8 p.m., since several of the schoolchildren will be taking part. For instance, the musical part of the program will illustrate flute technique taught to third graders; there will also be choral selections by the fifth and sixth grade classes and some instrumental work.

Norman Cory, musical consultant for the school district, is directing Tuesday's program, assisted by Miss Lucie Landen and Lee Hill, district instructors.

Designer Show

The March 2 "Big Four" fashion show was chief topic of discussion yesterday, when members of the Menlo Mothers' club met in the school commons.

Mrs. Scott Ennis, fashion coordinator for Joseph Magnin, whose fashions will be borrowed for the occasion, was on hand to preview some of the ensembles to be shown and to sketch show highlights.

The four designers to be presented this year are Adele Simpson, Oleg Cassini, Harvey Berin and Talmack.

Anyone interested in obtaining tickets for the event, chaired by Mrs. Philip FitzGerald, may contact either Mrs. Theodore L. Lenzen, EM 6-5256, or Menlo school, DA 3-6141.

Travelers, Visitors Honored At Series of Small Soirees

By PROXY

A report (in post card form) has come from Mrs. John Wickett announcing that her current visit to San Salvador is nothing short of terrific. While south of the border Jean is visiting the Scotty Michaelsons and Nuria Fries. Return date for the peregrinating Athertonian is "near future," perhaps the end of this month.

For travelers just recently returned home (from Europe) Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Weir are entertaining Saturday at dinner. Guests of honor are the John Lohmans of Los Altos.

New residents of the Atherton area, Mr. and Mrs. Barry Livingston, will take the places of honor Saturday at a cocktail party planned by the Henry N. Kuechlers Jr. The Livingstons and their two young children are occupying the former Frank J. Novak residence.

Still another event designed for special guests is the luncheon being given Sunday by the William Rileys of Atherton for friends on visit from Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mather. The Canadian couple are headquartering in San Francisco while in this area.

Among the throng of party-goers at Tuesday night's Mardi Gras Ball in the city were Sidney Lee as Prince Rainier and his wife, Norma, as Grace Kelly, both attending the party as guests of the Lennart Ericksons of Hillsborough.

Still the biggest whirl of parties in these parts is centered about Dr. and Mrs. Hugh David Phillips, who are scheduled to leave from Atherton for New York on February 27, where they will board their ship for Europe.

A large number of friends were on hand Saturday evening at the Sidney Lees' cocktail party given before the Menlo Country club dance . . . others entertaining last week for the popular travelers were Dr. and Mrs. Russell Roach.

A round of parties on this week's calendar includes last night's dinner in San Francisco . . . another dinner this evening at the William Pabsts' . . . a gathering tomorrow at the Nathan Most home . . . a Saturday soiree hosted by the Edward Turkingtons and a Sunday brunch at the William McKenzie summer home in Atherton.

An intrepid band of decorators set to work on Friday afternoon to convert the Menlo Country club into its Saturday dinner dance setting, a Valentine's Day variation on the Black and White theme. Sparking the work of the committee was its dance chairman, Mrs. Murray Innes who, despite a dislocated back, went ahead with party plans in the true trouper spirit.

Other women behind the scenes, members of the decorating band, included Mrs. E. A. Johnson Jr., Mrs. George Long, overall chairman, Mrs. James DuPrau, Mrs. M. H. Buckingham, Mrs. Leland Doane, Mrs. Howard Frame, Mrs. H. L. McIntyre, Mrs. Emery Rogers, Mrs. Franklin Wheeler and Mrs. Charles Wilson. Husbands joined their wives in the task of hanging black and white drapery, Harlequin masks and figurines after dinner.

Eight years ago on Valentine's Day, the Emmet Cashins received the nicest valentine that parents could—a baby daughter named Bonnie. This Tuesday afternoon, midst the traditional hearts and flowers of the day, Bonnie celebrated her birthday with several feminine friends.

Among the guests enjoying ice cream and cake were Pamela and Peggy Rule, Cara Lee Williams, Constance Collier, Susan Seideiman, Christine Mueller, Lisa and Cynthia Miller, Linda Savage, Susan Zellerbach, Sheila Devine and Stephanie Lee.

Mrs. Alex Is President of Green Oaks PTA

Mrs. William Alex has been chosen to lead the affairs of Green Oaks PTA for the 1956-1957 year.

Mrs. Alex was elected president at the February meeting of the PTA, held in the school multi-purpose room a week ago Tuesday. Slated to work with her for the coming year are the following officers:

Mrs. Herman Daniels, vice-president; Ronald Weaver, honorary vice-president; Mrs. F. H. Benedick, recording secretary; Mrs. Mrs. H. W. Sholaas, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Eliza Bailey, treasurer; Miss Ann Smith, auditor and Mrs. E. J. Williams historian.

Installation will be held March 6 at the school. Mrs. Ted R. McMillen, president of Ravenswood PTA and 17th district CCPT chairman of special education, will be installing officer.

'Patio Party'

Final plans for their April 14 "Patio Party" will be made Tuesday evening when the College chapter, Notre Dame de Namur Alumnae board meets to sketch party ideas and to mark the official opening of reservations for the event.

Announcement of the April dessert bridge tea was made by Gloria Strauss, president of the sponsoring chapter.

'Sewing Bees' To Aid Bazaar

Various handmade articles to be sold at a May carnival and bazaar at Temple Beth Jacob will be turned out every Wednesday from now on, according to Mrs. Louis Silber, chairman of the newly-organized workshop sponsored by the Sisterhood of the tempie.

Workers will meet with Mrs. Silber in her home, 17 Ethel court Redwood City (EM 8-7384). Serving as co-chairman of the project is Mrs. Milton Peckler of Palo Alto, while localites on the committee include Mrs. Alfred Grossman of Menlo Park and Mrs. Irvin Becker of Atherton.

Handmade articles being readied will take in girls' dresses, sun suits, fancy collars, cocktail aprons and stuffed animals. Benefits derived from their sale will go toward furnishings and other needs of the Sunday school.

Hadassah Topic

The February meeting of Sequoia chapter, Hadassah, will be dedicated to the international youth immigration movement Youth Aliyah, through which more than 75,000 homeless children from 70 war-torn countries have been rescued and rehabilitated in Israel.

Mrs. Bertrand Klass, program chairman, has promised an outstanding afternoon's meeting next Tuesday at 725 University avenue, Palo Alto. Members wishing to make transportation arrangements may call either Mrs. Harry M. Newman, DA 5-3856, or Mrs. S. Simrin, EM 6-7678.

INTERMEDIATE bridge players in the AAUW will hold forth Tuesday with Mrs. H. J. Sexton.

Peninsula Children's Theatre To Present "Magic Butterfly"

"The Magic Butterfly," an original musical play by Jules Irving, will be staged on Saturday morning and afternoon at Sequoia high school auditorium under the aegis of the Peninsula Children's Theatre association.

The performances, at 10:30 a.m. and at 2 p.m., will be encored the following Saturday at Burlingame high school.

Story for the musical concerns three "Wallabous" (Mr. Irving's name for the evil witches), who steal a baby princess and turn her into a butterfly. As a special feature, members of the audience will be asked to participate in saving the princess by clapping their hands at appropriate times during the show.

ORIGINAL SONGS

"The Magic Butterfly" also includes a number of original songs by Richard Bartanian, noted San Francisco artist who has appeared recently at the Purple Onion and Shanghai Lil's. Both Mr. Irving and Mr. Bartanian, as well as Jean Parshal who designed sets and costumes, are members of the Actor's Workshop now presenting the controversial production of "Mother Courage" at Marines' Memorial in San Francisco.

The Peninsula Children's Theatre, now in its fifth year, presents three plays each season.

As is its custom, the group donates complimentary tickets to worthy organizations, among them this year the Stanford Speech and Hearing Clinic, Children's Receiving Home, Serra Morena and El Portal schools and the Children's Health Home.

PCTA provisionals serve as ushers, and members are on hand at all times to supervise the youngsters.

'PENCHY,' THE CLOWN

"Penchy," the association's clown mascot, will again entertain between the acts and will greet the birthday celebrants in the audience.

Among those who will be honored Saturday by Penchy is Muff McLellan of Atherton, who will have as theater-luncheon guests Danny McGanny, Dede Jessup and Carolyn Pohlman. Muff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garratt McLellan of Atherton, will mark her fifth birthday.

Mrs. Edwin Balaam, PCTA business manager, has asked Mrs. Melvin Savage Jr., Mrs. James Mack Mrs. Charles Black, Mrs. Robert Leps and Mrs. William Wallace to act as ushers for the performance.

Mrs. James L. Walker, association president, has announced that all tickets for both the February 18 and February 25 performances are already sold out.

Psychiatrist To Be Guest of Alpha Xi Delta

Husbands and firends, as well as area Alpha Xi Delta alumnae, are invited to attend next Tuesday's February meeting of the alumnae group featuring Dr. Charles Respini, popular Palo Alto psychiatrist, as guest speaker.

The 8 p.m. session will be given at the home of Mrs. Robert Case, 842 Seale avenue, Palo Alto, and those planning to attend are asked to make reservations with the hostess at DA 5-1786.

Dr. Respini, a graduate of the University of California Medical School with residency in psychiatry at Langley Porter clinic, is a member of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology and chairman of the Palo Alto Mental Health society.

With a private practice in Palo Alto, he has conducted a highly popular series of lectures for the adult education department of Palo Alto high school, and plans to renew this series in spring.

Local Alpha Xi Delta's desiring transportation to the February 21 meeting may contact Mrs. Frank Grant at EM 6-6610.

'Investigation' Tuesday Topic

Members of the AAUW social studies committee will consider "Individual liberties and congressional investigations" on Tuesday in the fourth of the series on "Individual Liberties."

The group of university women will meet at 12:30 p.m. with their hostess, Mrs. Frank G. Lemert Jr., 745 Evergreen street, who will serve coffee and dessert.

Discussion participants for the afternoon include Mrs. E. M. Mariner, who will give a history of congressional investigations, and Mrs. John Crawford, who will outline the rights and obligations of witness. Mrs. Albert Bandura will review Alan Barth's "Government by investigation" and Mrs. Henry L. Leicester will recap "Grand inquest" by Telford Taylor.

Glamorous 'Vintage Show' Will Benefit Home Society

A party with glamor plus is being planned jointly by the Woodside auxiliary and Tinker Bell chapter (San Mateo) of the Children's Home Society of California.

At a meeting held yesterday at Mrs. Joseph Schiffer's Woodside home members of the two CHS units discussed preliminary plans for their parade of "Vintage Fashions" which will complement a wine tasting party Saturday, May 5, at the Robert McNeil estate in Atherton.

There will be styles from H. Leibes and company, wine from the Louis B. Martini winery of St. Helena, with donations destined for the Children's Home Society to support its two-fold job, interpretation of the CHS program and financial aid for its adoption services.

Mrs. Philip Sanfilippo of San Mateo is general chairman of the May event. Other committee heads are:

Active Localite Offers Recipe Suggestions for Lenten Season

When you're an active housewife, mother and citizen, such as Mrs. Emmanuel (Louise) Davidove of our town, perhaps you're apt to find cooking one of those tedious "necessities." Not so Mrs. Davidove.

With our active localite—she is a member of the Menlo-Atherton AAUW branch, office holder in the district CCPT, League of Women Voters member and now busy with her part in the Palo Alto Adult Chorus—cooking is a lot of fun.

Mrs. Davidove says her husband has often kidded her for being a "clip-tomaniac" with drawersful of recipes cut from newspapers and magazines (now categoried), but the Menlo Park housewife finds these a useful way to vary meals.

BASIC COOKBOOK

Basic book to her collection of specialty recipes, however, is a copy of the "Settlement Cookbook," a compilation of everyday food preparations, as well as the fancier ones. Another pet is the "Connecticut Cookbook" made up of the favorite "receipts" of several personalities, many of them well-known.

An example of a truly wonderful cook, of the old school of "some of this and some of that" was Mrs. Davidove's mother-in-law, the localite says, who whipped together those mouthwatering Russian dishes. Mrs. Davidove, herself, has a pet variation of "Borscht," Russian beet soup, which starts with a basic stock.

"I'm always buying soup bones for some kind of soup," the localite explains. She covers the meatless bones with cold water for some time, then adds onion, celery tops and other seasonings, covers it and simmers for at least four hours.

DICED BEETS

For Borsht, she adds a can of diced beets and chopped onions, giving the mixture a tartness with citric acid from the drug store and a sweetness with sugar—this, done to taste. The coup can be served hot or cold with sour cream.

A chicken stock can be used as a base, also, Mrs. Davidove notes.

With the Lenten season here now, we requested some non-meat recipes from the localite, and she told us about a wonderful salad (recipe clipped from a newspaper) which can be made well in advance of a luncheon (for which it's ideal) or dinner.

TUNA SOUFFLE SALAD

Titled "Tuna Souffle Salad," this delectable dish calls for 1 package of lemon flavored gelatine; 1 cup of hot water, ½ cup cold water, tablespoons lemon juice, ½ cup real mayonnaise, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 can chunk style tuna, ½ cup cooked green peas, ¼ cup chopped celery, 1 tablespoon chopped pimento and grated onion if desired.

The gelatine is dissolved in hot water, then the next four ingredients—cold water, lemon juice, mayonnaise and salt—are added and blended well with a rotary beater. This mixture is poured into the freezing tray and chilled quickly without changing the controls; this should be done in 15-20 minutes or until firm about 1 inch from the edge, remaining soft in the center.

Turn the chilled mixture into a bowl and whip until fluffy. Fold in the remaining ingredients and place in either individual or large molds, chilling in the regular part of the refrigerator. This gives 4-6 servings.

CHILLED DESSERT

The same advance preparation by chilling is used in one of Mrs. Davidove's very favorite desserts, "Prune Marlo," found in the "Connecticut Cookbook."

Ingredients are 1 small package marshmallows (16), ½ cup prune juice, cup stewed prunes, cut up, ½ teaspoon vanilla, 2 teaspoons lemon juice, pinch of salt, 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten, 1 cup whipped cream.

Melt the marshmallows in the prune juice in the top of a double boiler; add prunes, lemon juice, vanilla and salt, and then cool. When cool, add the beaten egg whites and fold in the whipped cream; then turn into a tray and freeze.

Bananas can also be folded into the mousse type dessert, says Mrs. Davidove, and apricots instead of prunes may be used, leaving out the lemon juice.

MACARONI MOUSSE

When she was working at a Red Cross canteen in the East, the Menloite picked up a Macaroni Mousse recipe — wonderful for Lent—which was printed in the AAUW cookbook published last year.

It is prepared by cooking 1 cup of macaroni; pouring 1½ cups of hot milk over 1 cup of soft bread crubs, adding ¼ cup butter or margarine, 1 tablespoon each of chopped parsley and onion, 1 chopped pimento and 1½ cups grated cheese; then adding 3 eggs, salt, pepper and parika to taste; finally, add the macaroni and bake in greased mold 50 minutes in 325 degree oven. Serve with a mushroom sauce.

Last Friday, when we talked to Mrs. Davidove, she was thinking in terms of a cheese fondue (sharp cheddar) for dinner that evening.

TEEN-AGE DAUGHTER

On hand to enjoy it would be the Davidove's teenage daughter, Marcia, who is currently in her senior year at Menlo-Atherton high school. A dabbler in poetry with a love for singing, Marcia is planning to enter a smaller liberal arts college in Southern California this fall.

The Davidove's other daughter, now married, is residing back East with her husband and is to present the local couple with their first grandchild in about a month.

As her final offering for the season, Mrs. Davidove said to mention the fish sauce (another of her recipes in the AAUW cookbook), which her family had enjoyed last week over the cold boiled halibut—something different, interesting and good!

FISH SAUCE

The fish sauce calls for 1 large onion; 2 teaspoons prepared mustard; 1 cup catsup; 2 or more tablespoons oil; salt; dash pepper; 1 teaspoon diluted vinegar and plenty of finely chopped parsley.

Boil a thick slice of halibut and pour a little vinegar over it while it's cooling. Chop the onion fine and add the remainder of the ingredients to make sauce Pour off the vinegar which the fish cooled in, using required amount of this in the sauce.

Honorary Life Membership Is Mrs. Roden's

Heralding her son and daughter as her two greatest accomplishments, Mrs. Caroline Greene presented Mrs. Albert Roden with the Green Oaks PTA honorary Life membership at Founders' Day meeting last week.

Enumerating Mrs. Roden's many services to the community, which include helping to organize Green Oaks PTA and serving as its first president,

Being a member of the San Mateo County grand jury during the past year,

Taking part in the organization and execution of Ravenswood's fitle White House Conference last November,

Serving on the district PTA coordinating council,

Acting as a board director for the YMCA, Sequoia chapter,

Taking part in the Ravenswood Booster club activities, including serving on the executive board and Working diligently on community service drives such as the Red Cross and March of Mothers, Mrs Greene emphasized her role as housewife and mother.

"Mrs. Roden has a Doctor o Philosophy degree and was a college instructor before her marriage," Mrs. Greene continued "She is an excellent public speaker and has willingly given of her time and knowledge when needed."

"With all this devotion to the community, Mrs. Roden's first devotion has been to her family, with the result that she has presented to the world two wonderful children, Sally and George," she concluded.

Card Parties To Be Held Next Week

Two card parties are on the agenda for this month for the East Palo Alto Women's club and their friends.

The first will be held next Monday, February 21 at 1 o'clock at the women's clubhouse, Bay road at Oakwood drive. The 50 cent score cards includes dessert, according to chairman Mrs. Earl Davison.

Those who prefer to play bridge or canasta are asked to make up their own tables. Prizes for high scorers will be given for all games.

The second card party is an evening affair, to be held Saturday, February 25 at the clubhouse, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The public is invited to attend both events.

For Mr. & Mrs.

Pot luck supper at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow will precede an evening of bridge for the Menlo-Atherton Newcomers Mr. and Mrs. Bridge group, members of which will gather at the Palo Alto Women's club.

Mrs. H. Arthur Hatch, co-chairman, will be aided by Mrs. Gilbert Dorn, Mrs. Richard Perry and Mrs. Joseph McGuinn, hostesses.

Married couples of the Newcomers club are invited to join this bridge group, and may do so by calling Mrs. Hatch at DA 4-3539.

LITERARY SECTION

The Women's club literary section will meet at 12:30 p.m. on Tuesday with Mrs. Judith Pfaff, 654 Hermosa way. Co-hostesses are Mrs. Harry Pierce and Mrs. L. A. Phebus.

RECENT vacationers at Del Monte lodge, Pebble Beach, were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Hamilton.

What's Doing Among Menlo Park Teen-Agers

Jo Booth — DA 3-1909

Looks like Lincoln's birthday brought in spring, too (maybe we should knock wood when we say that), judging from all the beach parties!

Starting off with a small one, we'll mention Bev Crofts, Leslie Keck, Dick Peerie and Ralph McIntyre's jaunt down to Santa Cruz for a great afternoon on the roller-coaster and sunbathing!

A little larger group was that at San Gregorio, when Sue Hall, Carol, Pat and Liz Gullison, Jack Serabo and Mike Callahan arrived on the scene only to find the sand already occupied by Dave Peasley, Sue Grider, Diane Hardy, Carolyn Cody, Mike Skuse, Rich Cottrell, Barc Corbus and John Finegold!

Down in Pescadero, playing in the sand, eating and just generally having a blast were Barbara Dickman, Jim Sherman, Ken Ackerman, Ann Stapleton, Stan Derelian, Lorette Gananian, Joan Wickstrom, Bill Menta, Sue Legallet and Keith Holleuffer. They were joined later by Brent Lambert, B. J. Russell, Ralph Borgeson and Arline Cottrell.

* * *

Bean Hollow was the setting for a big senior get-together! Leaving from M-A at ten, the gang arrived there and started in on a day of swimming (well, anyway, wading), eating, games and taking pictures. They wound up at 4:30, cold, tired and extremely happy!

Pat Reynolds, Yvonne Layne, Andy Schwarz, Dave Newhouse, Bud Varty (who had a run in with some crabs). Dan Tapson, Bill Lawson, Sharon Hutchison, Linda Price, Sheri Adams, Martha Wright, Howie Anawalt, Carol Stickney, Jerry Terhune, Al Sundquist, Jerry Baker.

* * *

What was it? The Menlo School dance, "Juke Box Jump" of course and right before it, a party given by King Graham!

Dining on some delicious turkey, ham, salad and dessert were Sheri Adams, Trey Ichelburger, Betsy Kimball and Diane Dickerson. Then, going on to the dance, more familiar faces were spotted, such as Beth Rosener, Marilyn Ullman, Sue Holt, LesAnn Coffin, Barbara de Angeles and Donna Newport, among others.

Speaking of dancing, the waltz is very popular now. No, not the step, but the play, "Anniversary Waltz" in San Francisco. Making it the high point of their trip there were Al Sundquist, Sheri Adams, Dave Skuse and Judy Chapin, and before going home, they found time to ride the cable car and pay a visit to Fisherman's Wharf.

The three day weekend was an ideal time to check up on a possible college and that's exactly what Garv Bolton, Amos Roos and Fred Stark did!

Taking the train to Los Angeles, they continued on to Pomona college, and got a chance to sit in on classes, stay in the dorm and experience a small sample of college life. Did they like it? Better ask them!

Sue Lampman, noticing how warm it was, decided to have a swimming party — as far as we know, the first of the season! Her guests—Linda Allio, Linda Skass, and Barbara Buckholtz. The time they had—great!

"Hearts and flowers" was the appropriate theme at a Valentine party hosted by David Boye! Plenty of food and dancing entertained the guests, who were Bobby McClenahan, John Carr, Dave Langsdorf, Bob Weers, Chuck Ott, Sally Armond, John Wyant, Louella Teast and Carol Jean Mason, delighted!

Bowling is good exercise—and a lot of fun besides! That was all that was needed to recommend it to Marge Plaisted, Kathy Davis, Dave Morley, Dot Grove, Ted Huffcut, Gord Plaisted, Hugh Irwin, Al Luchini, Kent Flanders, Linda Crawford, Terry Baker, Hal Wyman, Gail Morrison and Larry Irwin, so they went to try their luck. Linda, high point girl, had never bowled in her life!

She was also hostess for refreshments after the get-together.

* * *

Getting an unexpected day to shop in San Francisco, Pat Meek, Marilyn Ullman, Diane Hardy, Laddie Gock and Nancy Berry quickly took advantage of it and splurged! They also met Carolyn Carson and Beth Rosener, who, it turned out, had exactly the same idea.

If you tuned into Dottie Hansen's Hi Time on TV last night, you might have noticed two familiar faces—Diane Sullivan and Andy Schwarz! They were representing the Macy high school advisory board and were getting in a plug for the fashion and talent show to be held at Hillsdale this coming Saturday.

The modelling will be done by the board members, and the talent will come from each school. Jim Reinhardt's band will represent M-A.

A prize based on audience approval will go to the best act, and in case you'd like to go down and root for M-A's entry, the show will be held in the garden restaurant about 2:30!

A dinner and games highlighted the last weekend for many Job's Daughters members. The event was a point party, where the losing side had to provide eats and entertainment, much to the delight of the winners!

All together, the names sound like this: Marge Paisted, Gayle Montana, Mary Kispert, Pat Reynolds, Barbara Beise, Judy Rischpater, Tony Thunan, Janet Buckthal, Betty Hepburn, Linda Heino, Jenny Bartells, Mimi Carter, Phyllis Watson, Kay Mullen, Nicki Spaulding, Rita Watson and Fran Willard, chief organizer.

After the game, an extremely happy bunch of M-A-ites could have been found over at Cris Cochrane's. Enjoying games, cookies, punch, dancing and talking were:

Five from Menlo At Pomona School

CLAREMONT (Special) — Menlo Park is represented by five students out of a total of 1955-56 enrollment of 1040 in Pomona college, according to Dr. J. Edward Sanders, dean of admissions.

Among the Menlo Park students are Ran Irwin, freshman, son of Mrs. Marian Irwin, 757 college avenue; William A. Corbus, freshman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Corbus, 239 Felton drive; Steward G. Graham, junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon W. Graham, 1770 Oakdell drive; Gretchen J. Snyder, sophomore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Omar E. Snyder, 4 White Oak court and Sandra J. Hirschboeck, freshman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hirschboeck, 335 Trenton way.

Babies, Birdies

"Babies and Birdies," photography-wise, will be the subject of Jack Davenport's discussion when he appears at 8 p.m. Tuesday before the AAUW pre-school section to provide hints on how to take better pictures of their children.

The meeting will be held at Mrs. George Jansen's home, 264 Marmona drive, with Mrs. Thomas Howes serving as hostess. Mr. Davenport is a representative of the Keith Cole studios.

ST. ANTHONY'S Women's club made plans for a food sale on Sunday and a fashion show sometime in May when members met last Thursday night. Guest speaker at last week's meeting was Mrs. Alvina Wipfler of Menlo Park, collector of Madonnas from all over the world.

A "CARIBBEAN CRUISE", in film form, will highlight tonight's meeting of the San Mateo county Dental auxiliary, which convenes at 7 p.m. in the Shadows restaurant, San Mateo.

DECORATIONS A LA MODE

CONVERTING THE MENLO COUNTRY CLUB into a black-and-white setting for Saturday's formal dinner dance were Mrs. James B. Duprau and Mrs. Murray Innes Jr., dance chairman. Room recorations were in a harlequin theme, with table favors of fans spiced with red hearts. —Recorder photo

Time Out:

FOR FUN

Fun for all in a Mardi Gras atmosphere is expected Saturday night, March 3, when Menlo-Atherton PTA has invited the school faculty for dinner at various homes followed by dancing in the M-A multi-purpose room.

Mrs. Willard Johnston, PTA president, is chairman of the party, assisted by Mrs. Claude Lindsay, Mrs. Harold Sox, Mrs. Jack Hensill and Mrs. Charles Tubb.

All parents are extended a bid to join in on the fun, with a slight admission payable at the door. A high school band will play for the dance, which starts at 9 p.m.

M-A Jaycettes

Menlo-Atherton Jaycettes will hold a post-Valentine's Day party and recipe exchange at their February meeting, scheduled for 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Palo Alto home of the president, Mrs Burton W. Blackwell, 3541 Emerson street.

The Jaycettes, all of whom are urged to attend next week's conclave are wives of members of the Menlo-Atherton Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Troop 318 Hears Talk on Greece

To celebrate Friendship Month, members of James Flood school's Troop 318 had Mrs. Harold R. Kiett as their guest speaker on "Greece." Mrs. Kletts read letters from that country, and displayed an authentic Greek doll dressed in the Kings Guard uniform.

The troop member's names were all translated into Greek, and to top off the afternoon an Armenian dessert and tea was served.

Girls in the troop are Kinda Burns, Margaret Beal, Diane Gibbons, Linda Hartman, Luann Lackey, Jeanette Eisler, Judi Lawrence and Janet Benson. Troop leader is Mrs. Feliz Gibbons, with Mrs. Harold Benson serving as co-leader.

Another of the troop's projects is to make scrapbooks for the girls at Sequoia hospital.

AREA public high school students are invited to attend a Retreat on Sunday, March 4, on the campus of College of Notre Dame, Belmont. Exercises open with Mass in Ralston chapel at 9 a.m., with breakfast and brunch in the cafeteria; reservations may be made through the college.

Mrs. McDearmon, G. A. Johnson Are Willow PTA Life Members

Mrs. Fielding McDearmon and George A. Johnson last night were awarded life memberships in the Willow Parent-Teacher association at the annual Founders' Day program held in the Willow multi-purpose room.

Mrs. McDearmon, wife of the Ravenswood elementary school district board chairman, has long been active in Willow PTA, having held a number of offices. She is co-chairman of the PTA hospitality committee this year. Mrs. McDearmon has also been active in Girl Scouts.

Mr. Johnson is the former custodian at Willow, and now holds a similar position at Menlo-Oaks junior school. He was selected for his "exceptional kindness to children and for going out of his way to help them."

Slides of last year's May fair at Willow were shown by Mrs. Albert Erickson.

The Founders' Day program was titled "Looking Into the Crystal Ball" with Mrs. William MacCurdy acting as chairman. Mrs. Warren Pingree, first president of the Willow PTA (1948-49), described the early beginnings of the organization, and Ravenswood District Superintendent Stanley Schnepple reported on future plans of the district.

A large birthday cake was served by first grade room mothers acting as hospitality committee hostesses.

Packed Agenda Faces PTA of Menlo Oaks

Tuesday evening's agenda for Menlo Oaks PTA numbers several points of interest, among them committee appointments, presentation of an honorary life membership, a fashion show and a shop exhibit.

First order of business at the 7:30 p.m. session, to convene in Willow school multi-purpose room, will be the appointment of a nominating committee to select officers for election at the next meeting. Following a discussion of he purpose of the life membership award, the Menlo Oaks citizen of the year will be introduced.

The style show, next event on the program, will be given by the girls in Mrs. Lois McFall's home economics classes, with background decorations by Mrs. Charles Vocke.

Climax of the evening will be adjournment to the shop at Menlo Oaks where Jerry Vallum has arranged an exhibit of the projects on which his seventh and eighth grade boys are now working.

Mothers from Mrs. Mildred Romig's eighth grade class will serve refreshments afterwards in the home economics room. Students, as well as their parents, are invited to attend.

Mrs. Grover's One Man Show

Some 200 friends were present last Wednesday when Mrs. L. Chace Grover of Woodside unveiled her first "one man" show at a preview party given at the Carl M. Thorp Art Center in San Francisco.

The localite, who greeted guests in a black cocktail print, has been wielding a paint brush for less than a year, her colorful pictures concentrating on scenes of Mobile, Alabama, where she was brought up.

Among the deep peninsulans who viewed her work were the Joseph Mustos, Carl Ludwig Hansens, Richard Marshalls, Harold Davises, Marshall Dill with Mrs. Edward Mills and her daughter, Gwladys, Paul B. Fays, Antoine Bovets, Frederick Shermans,, the Ramsdell Cummings and the Gaffeth Kellams.

Mothers Set Rag Drive Goal Of '16 Tons'

"Sixteen Tons" of rags — not coal — is the goal this year for members of the Mothers' club of St. Joseph's school who are launching their rag drive at this afternoon's regular meeting.

Mrs. M. J. Feliciano, club president, will call the session to order at 1:15 p.m. in the school gym. Following business, mothers of the fifth and sixth classes will serve tea under the chairmanship of Mrs. Warren Spieker and Mrs. James Silvester, assisted by Mrs. Nicholas Marcelli, Mrs. L. D. Wiechers, Mrs. Fred J. D'Oliva, Mrs. Thomas Dolan, Mrs. Russell Woods, Mrs. Donald Colin and Mrs. Roland Fitzgerald.

Any alumni or friends of the school who wish to contribute rags, rugs or any textile which will add weight, are asked to call the pickup committee headed by Mrs. George Fuerst, DA 2-6339, and Mrs. Joseph McCarthy, DA 2-3080.

Also under discussion today will be plans for the annual fashion show in May.

Dr. Iverson Talks Monday About Reading

"Don't They Teach Them to Read Anymore?" will be the topic discussed by Dr. William Iverson, of Stanford University, at Costano PTA's next meeting, this Monday evenint at 8 p.m. in the kindergarten room.

Dr. Iverson, an associate professor of education at the university, will answer the controversial question put by many parents now days, according to Mrs. George Stephens, program chairman.

During the business portion of the meeting the first life membership award will be presented by the PTA.

Nomination and election of officers for the ensuing year will be held. The nominating committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Grant Jones, submitted the following names for consideration: Mrs. Wayne Sullivan, president; Mrs. Raymond Cochrane, vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Prince, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Fleskes, recording secretary; George Morin, treasurer; Leonard Austin, auditor, and Mrs. George Stephens, historian.

Plans for the Founders Day celebration, a pot-luck dinner to be held Wednesday, February 29, at Green Oaks multi-purpose room, will be discussed by the chairman, Mrs. Harry Shields.

Refreshments will be served following the close of the meeting by the second grade room mothers.

Costano PTA Needs Salvage

"Start spring housecleaning early," advises Mrs. Louis Bogart, Costano PTA ways and means chairman.

With this friendly advice she adds that the second salvage drive will start March 2 and continue through the 9th, and that clothing, useable or not, which turns up during drawer and closet cleaning time will be most acceptable.

Forrest S. Paulls at Home in Menlo

At home now on Olive street are Forrest S. Paull Jr. and his bride of almost one week, the former Mrs. Margaret McNamara Phelps.

The couple, whose vow exchange took place Friday in San Diego, spent their brief honeymoon in Laguna Beach and Santa Barbara following the buffet luncheon reception at the San Diego home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William P. McNamara Jr.

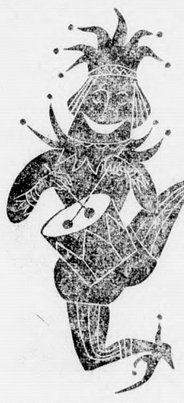

The senior Mr. McNamara came from Seattle, Washington, to give his daughter in marriage. For the occasion, the bride had donned a ballerina frock of champagne cotton lace matched with a cap trimmed in pearls. She had pinned on a corsage of butterfly orchids.

Mrs. McNamara Jr. served as sole attendant for her sister-in-law, while Forrest S. Paull Sr., who attended the wedding with his wife from Costa Mesa, acted as best man for his son.

Other wedding guests were Mrs. Arvin G. Fosse of Seattle, the bride's sister, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Smith of Santa Ana, the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, with their four children.

White stock and yellow tulips had been used to decorate the junior McNamaras' home where champagne and wedding cake were served after the buffet.

The bride, who is presently employed by Magna Power and Tool corporation here, came from Seattle to Menlo Park in 1942. Her husband is formerly of Woodside and serves as a juvenile officer with the San Mateo county sheriff's office.

At Fraternal Hall:

TUESDAY SALE

The Menlo Park fraternal hall, 645 Roble avenue, will be the setting next Tuesday for a 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. rummage sale sponsored by the Palo Alto United World Federalists.

Anyone with articles to donate is asked to leave them at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Carolyn S. French, 1171 Sherman avenue, or to call either her at DA 2-0132, or Miss C. Willard, DA 2-8118, for pick-up.

BLACK AND WHITE keynoted Tuesday's Mardi Gras dance at the College of Notre Dame, the last pre - Lenten festivity on the school's social calendar until Easter.

Two Bluebird Units Celebrate Traditional Sweetheart Day

Two Bluebird groups at Willow school put large red hearts around Valentine's Day on their calendars.

The members of Winsome Bluebird group made valentines to present to the children at Stanford Convalescent Home on Tuesday, after which the girls toured Hoover Memorial Tower with Miss Emerson, the librarian, acting as guide.

Bluebirds who participated were Ellen Cox, Kristine and Karin Dundas, Christine Jackson, Carol Jordan, Virginia Laughlin, Dale Reeves, Kathy White, Linda Schulze, Peggy Montgomery, Frances Williams and Patty Winters. Their leaders are Mrs. Lemond Laughlin and Mrs. Paul Williams.

Girls in the Happy-Go-Lucky group entertained their mothers during a coffee hour given at the home of their leader, Mrs. Gardner Gray, who was assisted by Mrs. John Kennedy. Entertainment by the Bluebirds included songs and the Pledge, refreshments and presentation of hand-made corsages to the mothers.

Members of this group are Millicent Gray, Bonnie Trottier, Catherine Hewett, Laura Egburg, Carol Lee Jennings, Barbara Kennedy, Ann McWhirter, Vandice Rahn, Debby Whitehead, Rochelle Winston, Mary Lou Brown and Kathlyn Dinno.

Juniors' Status

The Menlo - Atherton Junior Women's club, together with a new one in Redwood City were among California groups accepted as federation affiliates at the juniors' state executive board meeting held recently in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Burt C. Kendall of Menlo Park, a member of the new local unit and state "Build A Better Community" chairman was on hand at the session.
